FOREWORD

Hallo and welcome,

this is our yearly Guide's seventh edition!

This Guide was born seven years ago, as a help for our students. Since then, it has been revised and improved many times. New helpful information has been added, the graphic layout revised to be clearer and easily accessible.

Over time, the Guide has proven to be useful not only for Feng Shui and Ba Zi students and enthusiasts, but also for beginners, who can easily avoid technical explanation and just follow the advice, or use the lunisolar calendar with basic, simple rules.

There are many calendars and agendas like this. However, this Guide has some specific aspects and traits that you will not find in any other calendar:

- It has an in-depth section entirely devoted to 2026 Feng Shui.
- Most distinctive: a visual and immediate use of the lunisolar calendar, which makes Date Selection much easier. This is not just a Feng Shui and Ba Zi almanac, it is a smart tool specifically designed to select the best dates for your most important activities and deeds. It will make your work faster and easier!
- You don't need to be a pro to use this Guide: just read thoroughly the 'Instructions' and, after a bit of practice, you will be able to select good dates and avoid bad dates. You can successfully use this Guide even if you are a complete beginner!
- If you are a pro, you will find a lot of information, shortcuts, and tricks for faster Date Selection!
- You have access to 6 free video guides on Date Selection!

The 2026 Feng Shui Guide is designed to fit the Feng Shui and Ba Zi system we use in our school, Kan Yu Feng Shui Academy. So, there could be some minor differences with other systems. The expert user, or the advanced student, will need to be aware of this.

This guide is in a PDF portable format, easy to look at using any device: desktop, laptop, tablet, smartphone. It does not consume energy or trees and you can't forget it somewhere! (You can print the Guide, anyway)

The lunisolar calendar comes again in a weekly format, easier to read on smartphones and small devices. You can also use the Guide for your annotations and for keeping track of your work!

Our wish is getting this Feng Shui Guide better and better, as time goes on. For this reason, if you have ideas, advice or any critical comment to improve this Guide, please write us to info@kanyufengshuiacademy.com. Your comment is always welcome!

Following the great success of the 2025 Feng Shui Guide, we are very happy to present you this seventh edition improvements (2026):

- The content has been revised and updated.
- In Section I, we have added advice on moving into a new home in 2026, followed by the best choices (directions and times) for placing a fountain or aquarium, or for activating the wealth corner.
- BONUS Video – 2026 Feng Shui Advice!
- BONUS Video – 2026 Chinese Astrology (Ba Zi), based on your Day Master!
- In Section II, we have added a table of hidden (traditional and modern) heavenly stems.
- More detailed and accurate stars and astrological aspects in the lunisolar calendar (Section III): each day of the year has been thoroughly analysed and, when conflicting structures or stars show up, the strongest or most prevalent structure was indicated – easier for beginners! In addition, the best and worst days are visually highlighted for quicker reference.
- The Guide is expanded from 196 pages to 213 pages.

We really hope this Guide will help you with your living and working spaces. It will help you improving your home layout and gaining benefit from Heaven's Qi. Picking the right time for your important activities and choices is the best way to take advantage of energy waves in time!

We strongly suggest that you carefully read the 'Instructions' section before using the Guide, especially if you are a beginner.

GETTING STARTED

Instruction

We strongly suggest that you carefully read this section before using the Guide, especially if you are a beginner.

This Guide is meant for the use from beginners and medium-advanced practitioners. Skilled practitioners will be able to use this Guide in many profitable ways, combining their knowledge and experience. This is particularly true for Date Selection: in the calendar section you can look at all dates (and their positive or negative qualities) in a glance.

Feng Shui beginners and enthusiasts will have a great benefit. Just skip technical issues and follow the advice! For Date Selection, follow the general instruction you will find in the next pages.

This Guide will help you mainly in two areas: Feng Shui and Date Selection. Feng Shui will help you optimizing your home and workplace to get the best energies of this year – and avoid the worst. Date Selection can be used for starting important activities, projects, and events in life (like marriage, changing house, etc.). It is also used to find the correct time for taking a critical decision, and for many other things, like starting a diet, closing an issue, decluttering your house, and so on.

At a basic level, the most important role of this Guide is to avoid mistakes in your house, and avoid bad dates for your important activities, that is avoid doing the wrong thing in the wrong moment. Anyway, we recommend you ask professional Feng Shui advice if you are not sure or not skilled enough.

Any question? You can join our Kan Yu Feng Shui Community, where you will get an answer! It's free and you can meet a lot of Feng Shui enthusiasts!

Section I (Feng Shui)

In the Feng Shui section, you will find the general information for year 2026, and detailed advice you can use in your house or workplace, to improve your life and work. This is done by analysing the interactions between the Ba Gua (a 3x3 grid placed on your house plan) and Flying Stars.

You will also find detailed pages regarding the timing for construction work. Certain areas or directions should not be disturbed this year – or, if you have to do so, you have the option to pick the good date and avoid the bad. To get full benefit, use the construction work pages together with the calendar section. A detailed table on transfers and important trips follows. As for transfers, removals and buying a new home, you will also find a dedicated chapter on how to manage them in 2026.

Finally, if you have a little more experience and want to use Feng Shui to activate a fountain, an aquarium or your wealth corner, there are two new dedicated chapters where you will find the best directions and times!

If you are a beginner, just skip technical issues and follow the advice.

Just to start, have a look at the 2026 Feng Shui Advice Video Guide!

Section II (Reference Tables)

Section II includes many tables and reference diagrams, useful for the student with more advanced knowledge and for the practitioner. In this way, all fundamental information is brought together in one section and included in the Guide. Consultation becomes easier, without the need to refer to other texts.

A few in-depth tables are also included, for example those relating to hexagrams. Finally, this section includes tables that allow further customisation of dates.

If you are a beginner, for the time being we advise you to skip most of this section. You will, however, find some useful charts, such as the 12 Day Officials, astrological aspects and customised stars, and hour pillar Date Selection.

There are 60 Pillars and 64 Hexagrams. Traditionally, 4 Hexagrams were taken out from space and time level of manifestation, because considered too powerful and metaphysical. They are: 1. Initiating (Heaven over Heaven), 2. Responding (Earth over Earth), 3. Darkness (Water over Water), 3. Brightness (Fire over Fire). This seems the most correct approach. In modern times, however, each of these four pillars (marked in the table above) is paired to two Hexagrams. Which way you use, depends on your approach.

Section III (Lunisolar Calendar)

The calendar section displays a wide range of information on every day's energy layout, in a graphic and visual frame that makes it easy and fast to use, especially for western people. You will find most important information related to the Sun cycle, the Moon cycle, Jupiter (Tai Sui position), symbolic stars, San Sha and much more.

You can make an easy and fast use, even if you are not that experienced. However, if you know how to use Ba Zi (Chinese Astrology), personal stars, and how to assess a Four Pillars chart, you can take great advantage mixing favourable and unfavourable energies for the person and the information from the calendar. You will be able to find far more accurate dates. Getting better is up to you!

After using this Guide for a time, you will also notice some recurrences and some important issues that could come up. Use this new information to become more experienced and find better dates!

This is not just a Feng Shui and Ba Zi almanac like many others, it is a smart tool specifically designed to select the best dates for your most important activities and deeds.

You can plan your most important activities from the beginning of the year!

IMPORTANT

1 – In the lunisolar calendar all times are given GMT+0 (Greenwich Mean Time). If you don't live in the GMT+0 time zone, you will need to adjust. This is easily done using Ba Zi Calculator.

2 – If you want the most accurate time, you will need to use the longitude of the place and apply other corrections (Equation of Time, ...). You can do all calculations automatically on Ba Zi Calculator.

3 – DST (Daylight Saving Time) is not indicated in the calendar. To find the civil time (i.e., the time you usually look at on your watch) you will need to adjust; that usually consists in adding 1 hour in summertime. Anyway, not all countries add exactly 1 hour in summer, and not all countries adopt DST (here you can check the time zones). Moreover, not all countries start and close DST on the same day. You can find more information on the internet. All calculations are made automatically on Ba Zi Calculator.

4 – For detailed calculation and double-checking, we recommend using Ba Zi Calculator.

We usually talk about 2026 as the yang Fire Horse year. Though, you must not forget that 2026 in western calendar is going from 2026, January 1st to 2026, December 31st. But nowadays, the western calendar has lost most of ancient energetic connections to natural cycles.

In Eastern Astrology (aka Ba Zi or “Four Pillars of Destiny”), the yang Fire Horse year starts on 2026 February 3rd, ending on 2027 February 4th about 2am.

Therefore, the month of January 2026 is still part of the yin Wooden Snake year, as are the starting days of February 2026. There are very specific reasons for this, which will not be treated here. Practitioners who use Ba Zi systems based on lunar calendar will need to adjust. This can be easily done using the ‘lunar calendar’ column.

A similar issue comes for the month. We usually think a month starts on the 1st and ends on the 28th, 29th, 30th or 31st. In eastern solar calendar, there still are 12 solar months, but they start and end between the 3rd and the 6th day of the (western) month. Again, there are very specific reasons for this, which will not be treated here.

For instance, ‘August’ is not exactly the Monkey month, which roughly goes from August 6th to September 6th. You will find specific information inside the calendar.

Yearly Three Killings Days (San Sha) They are carried by day earthy branch. You should always avoid these days for long-term activities. You can use these days for short-term activities in the weeks or months, if necessary. Robbery Sha Day: You can lose money, personal objects, opportunities, or being robbed (not necessary on a physical level). They are also not good for spending for money deposit or withdrawal. Calamity Sha Day: This is the worst kind of Sha. These days are associated with major issues, harms, deaths. They are not good for medical surgery, unless necessary. Annual (Earth) Sha Day: They bear obstacles, unavailability, delays, setbacks, delays, lack of development, procrastinating, wrong start. Monthly Three Killings Days Their influence is similar to the yearly Three Killings days. Avoid these days, especially for short-term activities. You can use these days for long-term activities more than 6 months, if necessary. They are carried by day earthy branch. They are named: Robbery Sha, Calamity Sha, Monthly (Earth) Sha. Weak Energy Days For various reasons, these days are very weak. Try the best to avoid them. Dead Days This is the worst day in the wrong season. They are usually weak and ineffective. Better avoiding it unless you know the exceptions. RCE	Strong Days Such a day has a strong effect, for the good or the bad. It has a strong root in the earthly branches. The influence is stronger, more effective, and quicker. Very Strong Days Such a day has a very strong effect, for the good or the bad. It has a strong root in the earthly branches, and it gets the combined help from the month pillar and the year pillar. The influence is much stronger, more effective, and quicker. They are rarer than the Strong Days. Extremely Strong Days Such a day has an extremely strong effect, for the good or the bad. It has a strong root in the earthly branches, and it gets the combined help from the month pillar and the year pillar. The influence is much stronger, more effective, and quicker. They are extremely rare too. Heavenly Support Days These days harmoniously get the support from other heavenly stems. Everything is flowing smoothly and fast. Heavenly Clash Days These days clash with other heavenly stems inside the date. There could be blockages, difficulties, delays, glitches, contrast. Avoid this day if possible. Heaven Blessing Star, Heavenly Virtue This is a very good star giving help and protection. Even stronger than the Moon Blessing Star. Moon Blessing Star, Monthly Virtue This is a very good star giving help and protection, although weaker than the Heaven Blessing Star. Heavenly Happiness Star This star favors social connection and good feelings. It is good for meetings, family events, sharing.	FEBRUARY, 2026 - yang Metal Tiger month Starts February 3rd 2026, ends March 1st 2026 TERMS OF QI: Beginning of Spring February 3rd 2026 Spring Water February 18th 2026 庚 寅 8 <table border="1"> <tr> <td>16 MON</td> <td>Water</td> <td>辛酉</td> <td>辛酉</td> <td>酉</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>4</td> </tr> <tr> <td>17 TUE</td> <td>Wood</td> <td>壬戌</td> <td>壬戌</td> <td>戌</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>5</td> </tr> <tr> <td>18 WED</td> <td>Wood</td> <td>癸亥</td> <td>癸亥</td> <td>亥</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>6</td> </tr> <tr> <td>19 THU</td> <td>Fire</td> <td>甲子</td> <td>甲子</td> <td>子</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>7</td> </tr> <tr> <td>20 FRI</td> <td>Fire</td> <td>乙丑</td> <td>乙丑</td> <td>丑</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>8</td> </tr> <tr> <td>21 SAT</td> <td>Earth</td> <td>丙寅</td> <td>丙寅</td> <td>寅</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>9</td> </tr> <tr> <td>22 SUN</td> <td>Earth</td> <td>丁卯</td> <td>丁卯</td> <td>卯</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>1</td> </tr> </table>	16 MON	Water	辛酉	辛酉	酉	Q2 LUNAR	4	17 TUE	Wood	壬戌	壬戌	戌	Q2 LUNAR	5	18 WED	Wood	癸亥	癸亥	亥	Q2 LUNAR	6	19 THU	Fire	甲子	甲子	子	Q2 LUNAR	7	20 FRI	Fire	乙丑	乙丑	丑	Q2 LUNAR	8	21 SAT	Earth	丙寅	丙寅	寅	Q2 LUNAR	9	22 SUN	Earth	丁卯	丁卯	卯	Q2 LUNAR	1	FEBRUARY, 2026 - yang Metal Tiger month Starts February 3rd 2026, ends March 1st 2026 TERMS OF QI: Beginning of Spring February 3rd 2026 Spring Water February 18th 2026 庚 寅 8 <table border="1"> <tr> <td>23 MON</td> <td>Earth</td> <td>戊辰</td> <td>戊辰</td> <td>辰</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>2</td> </tr> <tr> <td>24 TUE</td> <td>Earth</td> <td>己巳</td> <td>己巳</td> <td>巳</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>3</td> </tr> <tr> <td>25 WED</td> <td>Metal</td> <td>庚午</td> <td>庚午</td> <td>午</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>4</td> </tr> <tr> <td>26 THU</td> <td>Fire</td> <td>辛未</td> <td>辛未</td> <td>未</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>5</td> </tr> <tr> <td>27 FRI</td> <td>Water</td> <td>壬申</td> <td>壬申</td> <td>申</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>6</td> </tr> <tr> <td>28 SAT</td> <td>Water</td> <td>癸酉</td> <td>癸酉</td> <td>酉</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>7</td> </tr> <tr> <td>1 SUN</td> <td>Water</td> <td>甲戌</td> <td>甲戌</td> <td>戌</td> <td>Q2 LUNAR</td> <td>8</td> </tr> </table>	23 MON	Earth	戊辰	戊辰	辰	Q2 LUNAR	2	24 TUE	Earth	己巳	己巳	巳	Q2 LUNAR	3	25 WED	Metal	庚午	庚午	午	Q2 LUNAR	4	26 THU	Fire	辛未	辛未	未	Q2 LUNAR	5	27 FRI	Water	壬申	壬申	申	Q2 LUNAR	6	28 SAT	Water	癸酉	癸酉	酉	Q2 LUNAR	7	1 SUN	Water	甲戌	甲戌	戌	Q2 LUNAR	8

Using the calendar to select a date

You will find a detailed introduction about eastern energetics and Chinese Astrology (Ba Zi) here. Carefully read these pages, especially if you are a beginner.

To select a date, you have to check accurately:

- the type of activity / decision / action you are going to start;
- the duration of this activity, or the duration of the direct effects of your action / decision;

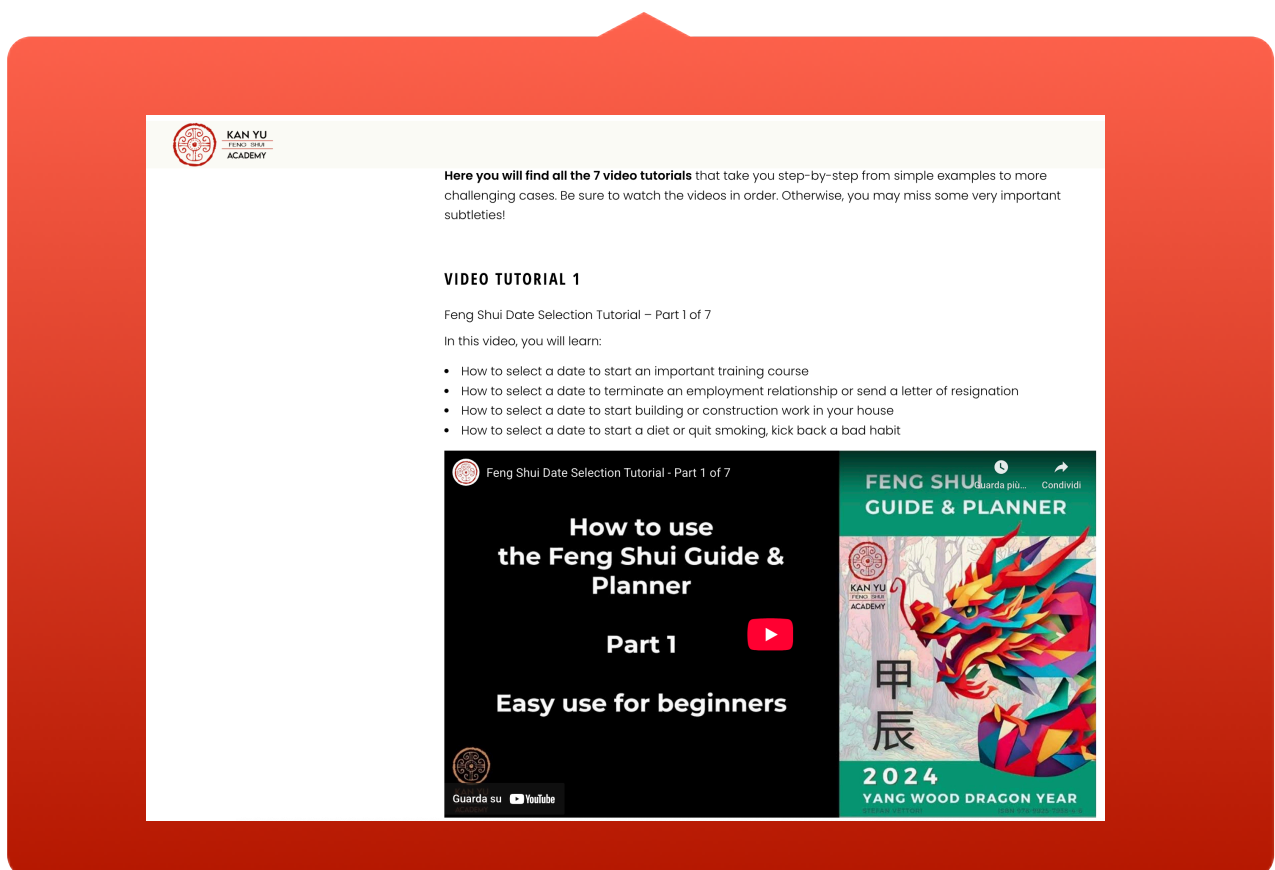

Then, you have to select a date mixing different techniques, depending on your level:

- You can easily learn how to visually read the calendar here.
- Always use the 12 Day Officials' method (detailed information here): the Day Official must be suitable to your activity/action.
- Always use the astrological aspects related to the day: avoid bad stars/aspects and look for good stars/aspects. Most of activities (but not all) benefit from favourable stars and aspects. Try to have good or suitable stars in the day pillar and hour pillar (at least avoid unfavourable stars).
- Try to choose a suitable time that does not clash with the day pillar. Detailed information on how to calculate the time can be found here. If you are a beginner, we recommend that you practise with the day pillar first and then move on to the hour pillar.
- When you are more experienced, you can add the personal stars in the picture (detailed information here). Use the stars related to the matter or the type of activity you are going to start.
- If you are a professional, you can add your knowledge to the picture: favourable and unfavourable energies, hexagram date selection, and so on.
- Every 12 days, there is one day branch that is clashing with your Day Master pillar. This is your personal clash day (this information is customized to your birth chart; you will need to plot your chart first using Ba Zi Calculator, and then look at the zodiacal animal right under the Day Master). When this animal appears in the third column from right, that day is clashing you, your family and your house. This is usually considered unfavourable, especially for family, house and even money matters. We usually want to avoid such a day. Still, it can be used for a separation, for splitting, for demolishing work; if you want a drastic output from your actions. If you already know the clash is favourable in your chart, you can use this day. But still, be careful!
- For Feng Shui Date Selection, please refer to Section I too.
- You can find Feng Shui yearly Flying Stars information and advice here.
- You can find more information about bed positioning here.

- You can find more information about desk positioning here.
- You can find more information on favourable and unfavourable monthly Flying Stars here.
- You can find more information about construction work here. First choose the right month based on good Feng Shui Flying Stars in those pages; then choose the right day in the month using the calendar. Remember: in construction work it is not important to select the best day, but it is very important to avoid bad dates by any means!

2026 FENG SHUI

GENERAL ASSESSMENT

2026 is the yang Fire Horse year (Crimson Horse).

In the Chinese solar calendar, the yang Fire Horse year starts on Tuesday, February 3rd, 8:05pm; ending on Thursday, February 4rd, 1:55am (GMT+0 – Greenwich Mean Time).

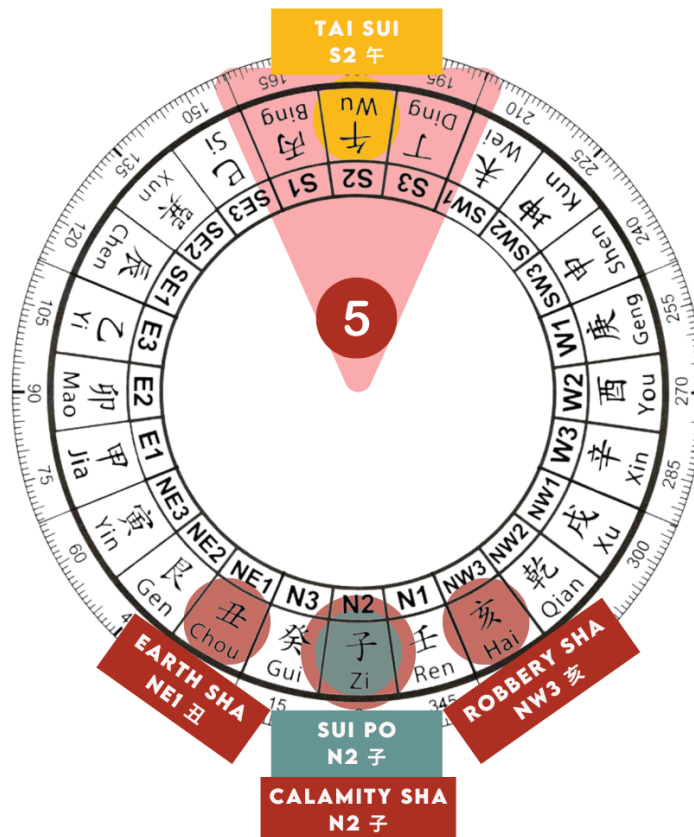

Note that from 2026, January 1st to 2026, February 3rd 8:05pm we still are in the previous yin Wood Snake year.

The Horse is the fifth of the 12 Animals of the Chinese zodiac. They are also called “the 12 Earthly Branches”. The Horse is a Fire animal; it contains three active spirits of Fire and Earth.

In the Fire Horse, the spirits of Fire and Earth are strong. Fire is very active and manifests itself clearly. In the Fire Horse year, we do not find Metal, Water or Wood spirits, but they do appear in the 12 months.

The hexagram associated to the yang Fire Horse is no. 28 “Great Accumulation” (Lake over Wind). The keywords are pressure, tension, excess, going beyond the limit. Extraordinary measures must be taken.

NORTH

From a Feng Shui perspective, 2024 has been an important turning point. In fact, from 2024 February 4th we enter a new 20-year 'period', known as Fate 9 or Yun 9. In this period, the Fire star 9 is the "Bright Star", and everything must be done in accordance with this star to get good luck.

Fate 9 has a duration of 20 years, from 2024 February 4th to 2044 February 3rd. Fate 9 is part of a larger 180-year cycle that began in 1864. This cycle will also end on 2044 February 3rd, after which Fate 1 Water will begin again (2044-2063). More information on Fate 9 here.

The best way to attract a star (positive) influence is usually to use the area where the star is located, for the specific purpose related to the star.

Example: in 2026, if you want to use star 9 for progress in work, you should use the southeast area for your desk/work, since this year star 9 is located in the southeast area. But in real life, this is not always possible.

A second option is to use the southeast area inside the room you are already working in. Again, this is only possible if the room is big enough, and if you have the chance of moving your workplace in the new position.

A third option is using the southeast direction, for example at the back or in front of your work desk.

A fourth option is to activate the star in a different, symbolic way, using the southeast direction or the southeast area. If you are not clear, we recommend a professional Feng Shui advice.

Depending on the situation, these four options can be mixed.

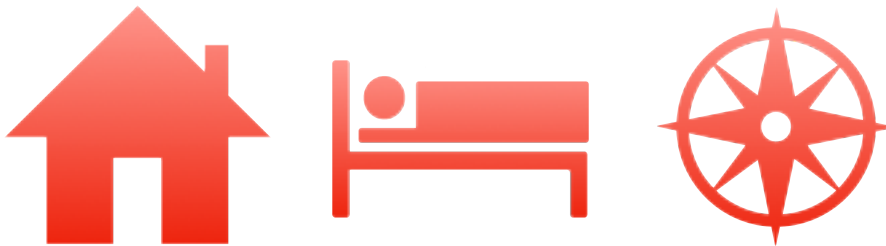

BED POSITIONING

We usually don't use yearly or monthly stars for bed positioning, and that's the reason why we won't treat this subject here. A bed is usually meant to stay in place for more years, and it is more difficult to replace than a desk or a table. To move a bed, we need to use other stars, with a longer effect. So, we don't usually move the bed, based on yearly or monthly stars.

Anyway, maybe you need to move a bed to a new position/room or place a new bed this year.

In this case, it is good doing it in a month where the yearly/monthly star is favourable in the room, and you have another good monthly/yearly star at the back of the bed.

If possible, place the bed in a room that has a favourable yearly star. Then, look at the monthly stars table to choose a favourable month – look for the stars marked in green (or at least grey). In any case, avoid red stars! Finally, select a good date using the lunisolar calendar (Section III).

If you can't place the bed in a favourable room (yearly star), looking for a favourable month star is even more important. You should also have a good star at the back of your bed. Then, select a good date using the lunisolar calendar (Section III).

It is also very important to avoid bad energy configurations in the day you place the bed and sleep in for the first time. You can use the calendar to pick up the right date. Positioning the bed is a very important issue, as we usually sleep there for about 1/3 of our life. A professional advice is recommended.

Even if we don't move the bed based on yearly/monthly star, the stars will still exert their influence on the bed. This is why in 2026 you should not place a bed with the back to north or south – unless you are very careful with Date Selection.

If your bed is already placed with the back at north or south direction, just don't move it – or move it before 2026 February 3rd. However, if your headboard faces north, it would be best to move it before 2026, February 3rd.

WARNING: do NOT place a bed or a desk just based on the flying stars. You also need to respect the Form School principles: correct back/front positioning, and so on. If you are uncertain about how to correctly mix Form and Compass School, we recommend a professional consultation.

DESK POSITIONING

Unlike beds, desks (especially work desks) are usually much easier to move to a new position, and in case revert back to the original one.

When positioning a desk, you want to check:

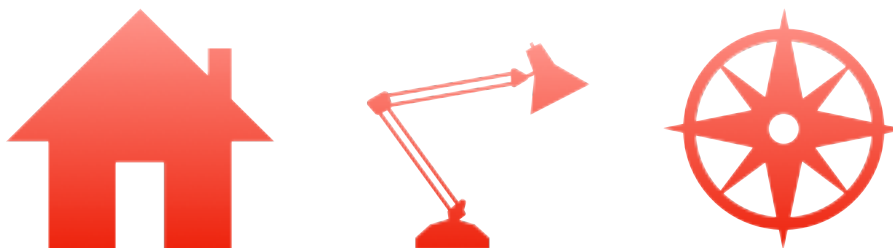

- the overall Ba Gua Palace(s) occupied by the room (Earth Qi);
- the area occupied by the desk in the room, applying a 3x3 grid to the room itself (Earth Qi);
- your desk's direction (back and facing) and stars (Heaven and Earth Qi);
- yearly and monthly stars in the Ba Gua Palace (Heaven's Qi);
- the month, day and hour you activate the desk (Date Selection, Heaven's Qi).

You need to put together in a correct way Heaven Qi and Earth Qi. When you place the desk in a new position, it is better to start using it too (if you are a professional, of course the date of placement and the date you sit in the position for the first time can be different – but that is more complicated).

So, moving the desk is not enough. You should start a new important project, make important phone calls, send important e-mails and other stuff like this - depending on your type of work.

In 2026 you shouldn't place an important desk with the back to north or south – unless you are very careful with Date Selection. If you want to put a new important desk in one of these directions, it is better doing it before 2026 February 3rd. If your desk is already positioned in one of those directions, and you can't change or you don't want to change it, just leave it as it is.

Desk positioning is getting more and more importance, also due to the great diffusion of smart working everywhere in the world. Now, let's have a look at how the yearly stars and favourable directions will affect your job outcome in 2026.

Star 1 Water (direction: centre)

Star 1 Water is usually considered very favourable. It is called the 'star of greater fortune'. It brings expansion, growth, and development at work. It favours studies and academic success. It helps to develop a network of social connections. This year, star 1 in the centre is particularly favourable for developing internal relationships between colleagues.

Since star 1 is in the centre this year, it does not have a specific direction associated with it. You can therefore only take advantage of it if it is possible to use the central area of your home or study. After that, you can choose the direction of your desk based on the position of the entrance door and other favourable stars.

Star 2 yin Earth (northwest direction)

Star 2 yin Earth brings fertility and new projects, it relates to earnings and rewards. It favours agricultural activities, nursery, kindergarten, everything has to do with babies and small things that need to grow up. This year, star 2 is particularly favourable for solicitors, mediators, lawyers, and all activities related to law and justice.

If you have star 2 at the back of your desk (your desk faces southeast), this is a good year to ask for and receive help, find support, mobilise resources, and find assistants and helpers, especially in the legal field. It is also the right time to apply for funding or financial support from the government. There will be an increase in earnings and productivity due to innovations. Great career development. For men, an important relationship with a female colleague could develop.

If you have star 2 in front of your desk (your desk faces northwest), the law is on your side and it is a good time to initiate legal proceedings, if necessary. There is help and resources waiting for you, or to which you are entitled, so seek advice from a solicitor or expert in the field. It is important to update your procedures and working methods, integrating all the new tools brought about by innovation; this will allow you to accumulate funds and reduce expenses.

If you can see the door of your office/studio from your desk, in the northwest direction, you may meet helpers, experts, solicitors or lawyers who can advise you on certain technical, legal or bureaucratic issues relating to your business.

Star 4 yin Wood (northeast direction)

Star 4 yin Wood is called the 'star of lesser fortune' or also 'the scholar's star'. It favours creativity and success in studies, in an academic career or in education. It is also the 'star of love' because it can be used to find a new partner. This year, 4 star 4 can help you improve your earnings.

If you have star 4 at the back of your desk (your desk faces southwest), it is a good time for professional development, training, learning new skills and competences – especially if you work in publishing, education, art, writing or journalism. Focus on innovation. Some of your colleagues may fall in love with you. You can find helpers who will allow you to increase your earnings. Competition with external rivals could become very strong: be careful that your ideas or projects are not stolen or copied.

If you have star 4 in front of your desk (your desk faces northeast), you will be able to start new projects and develop them, albeit with a little competition. Your boss will give you new goals to achieve. Your professional experience will grow. Pay attention to any problems that arise and deal with them immediately. New colleagues may arrive, or there may be updates and innovations in the workplace. There is a chance that you will find a new partner among your work acquaintances. Reorganise your business to reduce expenses and increase earnings; it will not be very difficult. If you have employees or colleagues, however, be careful: someone may act unfairly, try to undermine you or gain advantages at your expense. A partner or colleague may appropriate funds that do not belong to them.

If you can see the door of your office/studio from your desk, in the northeast direction, you will meet someone who will make your heart beat faster (not necessarily a work colleague, perhaps a client or supplier). You may be involved in teaching or professional development projects, even with external parties. You can activate secondary projects and external collaborations that will allow you to increase your earnings.

Star 6 yang Metal (north direction)

Star 6 yang Metal is called the 'command star'. It is usually considered very favourable. At work, it favours career advancement, authority, reputation. It brings recognition and promotion. It is favourable for medical and health matters and studies. This year, star 6 in the north is active and favourable.

If you have star 6 behind your desk (your desk faces south), there will be changes in the organisation of your work, some of which may be quite drastic and unexpected. You may also experience a major career advancement, or a big work problem may finally be resolved. However, dangers come from outside: be careful with customers and suppliers. You may receive very risky investment and collaboration proposals: do not accept them.

If you have star 6 in front of your desk (your desk faces north), your presence in the workplace will become more important. You can get support from your colleagues. You may also receive recognition or rewards for your work. In any case, this position is definitely unfavourable in 2026, because you have San Sha and star 5 behind you, which can cause many problems at work. Do not trust your colleagues too much. Beware of gossip; someone may try to stab you in the back. Also, try not to be too explicit with your colleagues: someone may steal your idea, project, or reward. You could even be fired if you make mistakes. You should seriously consider moving your desk from this position before 2026 February 3rd.

If you can see the door to your office/study from your desk, in the north direction, you may meet important or powerful people; these people could help you expand your network of professional contacts and give you new and interesting ideas for improving your work.

Star 8 yang Earth (east direction)

Star 8 yang Earth is an assistant star. It brings help and advice, success and prosperity, opportunities at work, assistants. It favours side earnings and brings projects to maturity. Particularly favourable for everything to do with architecture, planning, construction. This year, star 8 in the east is quite favourable, especially for young men and newly established businesses.

If you have star 8 at the back of your desk (your desk faces west), there are opportunities for earning and accumulating funds, but be careful to strictly comply with all rules and laws. Pay attention to any problems that arise and deal with them as soon as they occur. Relationships with the outside world (customers) may go through difficult times, but everything should work out for the best.

If you have star 8 in front of your desk (your desk faces east), help, earnings and important projects are on the way, albeit with some conflicts and delays. The biggest difficulties come from the internal organisation of work and from colleagues or partners. There may be differing views on how to proceed or how to use funds, but in the end, an agreement will be reached.

If you can see the door of your office/study from your desk, in the east direction, you will receive external help, albeit with some delays or difficulties; in addition, you can make significant gains from projects, jobs and secondary activities. Do not underestimate external collaboration proposals.

Star 9 Fire (southeast direction)

Star 9 Fire is an assistant star. In general, it brings activity, development, prosperity, new ideas, innovation, novelty and favourable changes; it favours the start of new projects. This year is very favourable and also brings gains and development.

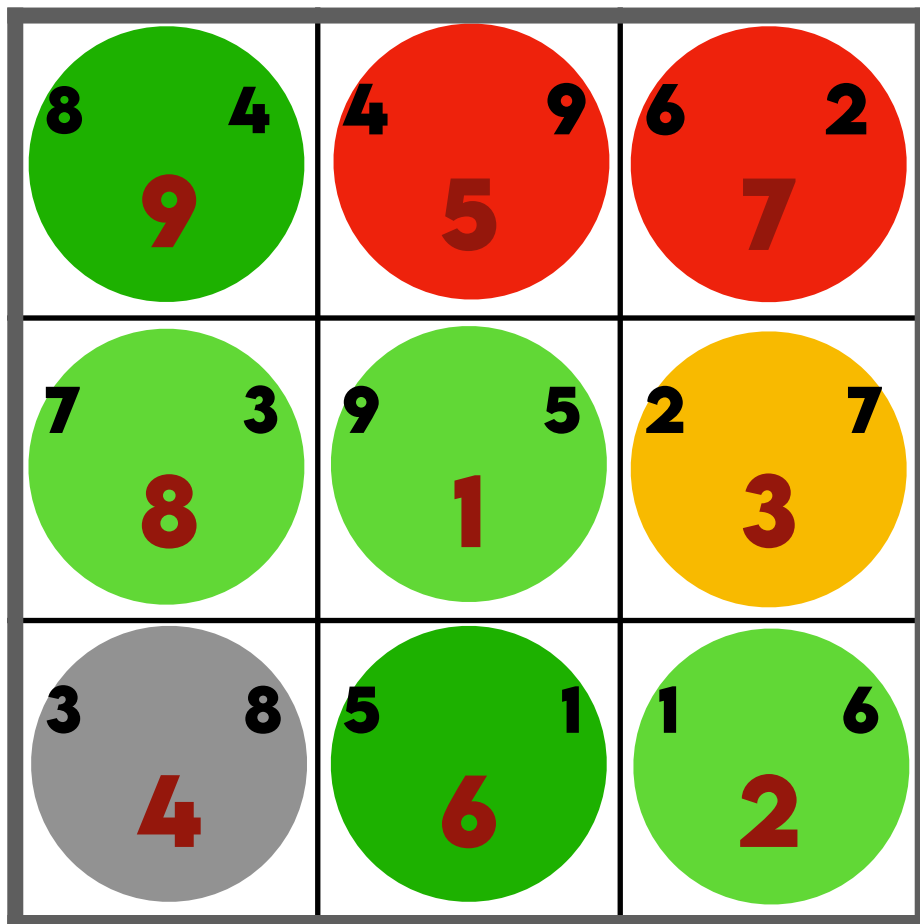

If you have star 9 at the back of your desk (your desk faces northwest), the law is on your side and it is a good time to start legal proceedings – if you need to. There is help and resources available to you, or to which you are entitled, so seek advice from a solicitor or expert in the field. It is important to update your procedures and working methods, integrating all the new tools brought about by innovation; this will allow you to accumulate funds and reduce expenses.

If you have star 9 in front of your desk (your desk faces southeast), this is a good year to request and receive help, find support, mobilise resources, and find assistants and helpers, especially in the legal field. It is also the right time to apply for funding or financial support from the government. There will be an increase in earnings and productivity due to innovations. Great career development. For men, an important relationship with a female colleague could develop.

If you can see the door of your office/study from your desk, in the southeast direction, you will receive news and previews during the year. Excellent for promoting your business/company, advertising yourself and acquiring a respected position in the market, for those involved in finance and sales. Excellent news and previews are coming; pay attention to the good opportunities that may arise!

WARNING: do NOT place a bed or a desk just based on the flying stars. You also need to respect the Form School principles: correct back/front positioning and so on. If you are uncertain about how to correctly mix Form and Compass School, we recommend a professional consultation.

THE 9 PALACES

In this part of the Guide, we will explore the effect of Flying Stars on the 9 Palaces. This is different from the position or direction of a bed or desk. It refers to the use of space, of one of the 9 areas of the Ba Gua, regardless of the location or direction used.

To apply it to your home, you must first draw the 3x3 Ba Gua grid on the floor plan. Enclose your home's floor plan in the smallest square (or rectangle) that contains it all. Then divide the sides of this rectangle into three equal parts and join these points together: you get a 3x3 grid, which divides the floor plan into 9 areas. In Feng Shui, these 9 areas are called '9 Palaces'.

Finally, using a compass, determine which of these areas is north of the centre of the house. Identify all other areas by associating them with a direction. For example, you can proceed clockwise from the north area with northeast, east, southeast, south, southwest, west and northwest.

Do not associate the north area with the position of the entrance door (as suggested on some websites or Feng Shui books), because this is completely wrong.

Favourable areas are indicated with shades of green, neutral areas in grey, unfavourable areas in yellow and very unfavourable areas in red.

The best situation occurs when the favourable areas are occupied by the main living functions (entrance hall, living room, kitchen, bedrooms, study).

If the favourable areas are missing or cut off, or are occupied by bathrooms, storerooms, unused rooms, or stairs, you will not benefit from the effect of the favourable stars.

Conversely, if a main living function falls in an unfavourable area, there may be problems. On the following pages some solutions or cures are indicated.

If unfavourable areas are missing or cut off, or are occupied by bathrooms, storerooms, unused rooms or stairs, the negative effect is weakened or nullified.

In 2026, the best areas are the north and southeast, followed by the centre and northwest. Homes with a free and open centre are favoured. The northeast, east and west areas have mixed combinations of favourable and unfavourable energies – good for some outcomes and less so for others. The worst area by far is definitely the south. The southwest is also a delicate area that is difficult to deal with, particularly if the main entrance or another secondary door is located here.

NORTH PALACE

8 4 9 SOUTH EAST	4 9 5 SOUTH	6 2 7 SOUTH WEST
7 3 8 EAST	9 5 1 CENTER	2 7 3 WEST
3 8 4 NORTH EAST	5 1 6 NORTH	1 6 2 NORTH WEST

Yearly star 6 yang Metal is visiting the North Palace. This is a good star, bearing authoritativeness, authority, career, power, command, determination, and reputation improvements. It helps military career and literary pursuits, career in corporation or big companies. It favours long life and health. It is also favourable for medical and health matters and studies.

Star 6 is in an excellent position in the north, helping the Lord of the Palace. In this situation, it becomes even more favourable for reputation, artistic success, and careers in large companies or corporations. It is also favourable for everything related to studies and medical sciences, especially natural and non-invasive medicine. Finally, it favours the expansion of one's network of contacts and the arrival of important or high-ranking acquaintances.

If the north area forms a single environment with the central or north-west area, this is very favourable.

The north area favours wealth and investments, career, job advancement, academic success and studies in general.

This is one of the best areas in 2026. However, do not place a bed or desk here with your back to the north or south this year. Furthermore, this area is connected to Sui Po, so, as with the south area, it is essential to avoid even minor changes and building work.

If your house faces north, a favourable future lies ahead, with economic growth, increased authority (especially at work), expansion of your network of contacts, and even the possibility of career advancement or an offer for a new and better job. In fact, at work, a risk or a difficult and potentially dangerous situation could finally be resolved.

However, you need to be careful in your family life. Unexpected and sudden changes could find you unprepared. New developments are on the way, which will bring significant changes. A son, or more likely a daughter, may decide to leave the family home or move away for study or work reasons. Tension and misunderstandings may arise, be careful. Communication is the key to resolving any problems.

If your house faces south, your family's wealth may grow. The family may become more important or rise in social class. The change may be drastic or unexpected. This configuration is also favourable for the health of all family members, especially the elderly. A major problem, a pending suit or a difficult family situation may finally be resolved for the better.

However, you must be very careful at work and, more generally, in your external relationships. There are pitfalls, dangers and sudden changes lurking. There could be an unexpected or unwelcome change at work. At work and in your social relationships, new developments are not favourable and could cause problems or seriously challenge the status quo. The help provided by your family and the proactivity of some of your relatives are the key to resolving any problems.

If the front door is located here, you will receive help and support from important people, especially at work. The law and justice are on your side: you could win a court case. However, it activates the Sui Po and this is not favourable; fortunately, the favourable stars mitigate this problem. In your external life, however, there could be sudden changes.

If your kitchen is located here, it is fine, especially if it is used for daily meals. Do not make any changes or carry out any building work, even minor ones.

If your living room is located here, it is favourable, especially for social relationships within and outside the family. Do not make any changes or carry out any building work, even minor ones.

If your bedroom is located here, it is favourable. However, do not place a bed facing north or south here this year. Do not make any changes or carry out any building work, even minor ones.

If your study/workroom is located here, it is very favourable for development, earnings and savings, the possibility of expanding your clientele, and becoming more important and well-known. However, do not place a desk here facing north or south this year. Do not make any changes or carry out any building work, even minor ones.

NORTH EAST PALACE

8 4 9 SOUTH EAST	4 9 5 SOUTH	6 2 7 SOUTH WEST
7 3 8 EAST	9 5 1 CENTER	2 7 3 WEST
3 8 4 NORTH EAST	5 1 6 NORTH	1 6 2 NORTH WEST

Yearly star 4 yin Wood is visiting the North East Palace. Star 4 is the “lesser fortune” star. It helps love, creativity, academic success, studies, arts. Star 4 is related to two different scopes.

Star 4 is the star of the scholar. It helps students, and anyone whose work has to do with art, literature, publishing, writing, education, teaching, research, and science. If you want to use star 4 for study and work, please refer to the ‘Desk Positioning’ chapter. You could also use a symbolic activation, but you need to know how to do it.

Star 4 is also the star of love. It helps getting a new partner and fall in love. You can also use star 4 for love, especially finding/attracting a new partner. You can use a 4-fold Feng Shui activator. It can be 4 nice small round stones, 4 small orchids or bamboo sprouts, 4 lights or lampshades... depending on the Ba Gua Palace you are working in. The activator must be in harmony with the Palace’s main energy.

You will also need to know when to start the activator. Use the lunisolar calendar to pick a good date. To summon the power of love, use your personal Peach Blossom star in the day/hour. You can calculate your personal Peach Blossom star in Section II - Reference Tables, check the ‘Date Selection: personal stars’ chapter.

Once you placed the activator, you will need to take care of it – at least once a week. Don’t just put it there and forget! Moreover, do go out and look for new friends and new types of people, after the activation. It is also important to make a selection; don’t just go with the first one!

If you find a new partner and you are happy and in love, you will need to remove the Feng Shui activator, or it will bear you new potential partners. Do it in a CLOSE, BALANCE or REMOVE day. Do not activate star 4 if you are already in a relationship, because you are heading for a break-up.

However, in 2026, star 4 in the northeast is not exceptional, although it is better than last year. Therefore, in general, it can be activated but avoid days when there is a Wood-Earth clash.

The northeast area is not very favourable for health and family relationships. It is also unfavourable for relationships for men. Consequently, it is better for men not to activate star 4 in the northeast this year and instead use the monthly star 4. This area is also not very suitable as a room for young people or teenagers. It is much better if used for work purposes.

If your house faces northeast, the situation is mixed. On the one hand, there may be development and growth in your career, expansion of your professional activities and improvements in the workplace. This configuration is also favourable for the educational and academic success of young people.

On the other hand, you need to pay attention to the family situation. There is a possibility that someone may have health problems or poisoning. In addition, tension in the couple may rise. There could be infidelity, arguments and misunderstandings. There could be conflicts between brothers or sisters. A family member could behave unfairly or hide something important: be careful. Adult women will suffer most from all these difficulties. However, in the long term, it will be these very problems that will provide the right impetus for professional success. In general, life will be very outward-looking.

If your house faces southwest, the situation is mixed. In your family, there may be problems and misunderstandings, difficulties with children, emotional distance. Outside, especially at work, there may be misunderstandings with colleagues, difficulties, and challenging relationships. A colleague or client may behave unfairly or try to steal something from you (an idea, a payment, a project): be careful! Working adult women are most at risk. At work, pay attention to how you manage your finances; also, check everything you do carefully to avoid making mistakes.

However, in the long run, it will be these work problems that will provide the right impetus to improve the family situation. Furthermore, this year, work problems will be linked to the family or will cause problems in the family. Conversely, family issues could conflict with work commitments. In essence, there will be problems in managing work and family life. Therefore, it is essential to establish a good relationship between these two areas and to be very clear and open with other family members. In general, life will be very inward-looking.

Therefore, this year, houses built on a northeast to southwest axis are not very good.

If the front door is located here, pay attention to your relationship with the outside world. In general, you may be involved in arguments, disputes, problems, and conflicts. In this case, for a couple, problems come from outside.

If your kitchen is located here, avoid important discussions with your partner and children.

If your living room is located here, pay attention to relationships between family members, especially between children. Avoid important discussions.

If your bedroom is located here, monitor your health. Adopt a healthy lifestyle. Avoid important discussions with your partner.

If your study/workroom is located here, that is better. Possibility of earnings.

Yearly star 8 yang Earth is visiting the East Palace. This is a good star, bearing help, assistants, happiness, small earnings. This is one of the best areas in 2026.

This configuration brings gains and authority. However, you must be careful of unexpected expenses, spending more than you earn, and poor financial planning. The choices you make in your work and professional projects must be in line with customer demands. Before starting a project, even if you are enthusiastic about it, consider carefully whether it will actually bring the financial results you expect.

If the eastern area forms a single environment with the central or south-eastern area, this is very favourable.

If your house faces east, the situation is more favourable for work and external relationships, but less favourable for family life. At work, there may be gains and investments. However, as already noted above, you need to keep your finances under control and, above all, make your career choices in line with current trends, especially if you are involved in activities closely linked to trends (fashion, entertainment, content creation, etc.).

Things are a little more complicated in the family. First of all, there may be problems and arguments. The family could become involved in legal issues. In general, there is a lot of tension. Someone may be offended or feel that they have not received the recognition they deserve. Important family projects may be blocked or postponed indefinitely, even if everyone is committed to achieving them. Pregnancy is favoured.

If your house faces west, the situation is more favourable for your family, but less favourable for work and external relationships. Your family's financial situation could improve but be careful of bad investments and overly expensive projects. If you have to make an important financial decision for your family's future, it is best to postpone it until next year.

At work, however, the situation could be very mixed, with various difficulties. There may be disputes and lawsuits, rapid changes, misunderstandings and disagreements with colleagues and clients. Be wary of fraud and scams. However, your family will support you in your difficulties, offering help and support. Professionally, it is a year suited to great challenges and ambitious projects, but you must bear in mind that the risks are very high.

If the front door is located here, this is favourable. Expect good news, help and support from friends and colleagues.

If your kitchen is located here, that's fine.

If your living room is located here, that's very good. This room is lively and brings happiness and good family relationships.

If your bedroom is located here, it is acceptable.

If your study/workroom is located here, this is favourable, bearing in mind the considerations we made at the beginning of this chapter.

Yearly star 9 Fire is visiting the South East Palace. Star 9 is related to activity, help, prosperity, new ideas. In this palace, star 9 is particularly favourable for expression, activity and earnings. It is a yang room, more suitable for daytime activities; less suitable for rest and relaxation – it can lead to excessive excitement and exhaustion. Very favourable for creativity, especially in technical-scientific, architectural and design fields; also suitable for research, development, new ideas and earnings. It is also very favourable for studies and academic success, especially in technical and scientific fields. However, beware of stress and overexcitement.

This configuration is very favourable for earnings, especially in the fields of construction, architectural design, property sales and property investment. It also brings happiness and a zest for life.

This is the best area in 2026.

If the southeast area forms a single environment with the central or east area, this is very favourable.

If your house faces southeast, there is excellent news on all fronts. At work, there may be growth, earnings and success – especially if you are involved in architecture, design, construction, property sales and investments. In general, favourable developments await you.

Your family finances could improve; there is great potential for accumulation. However, be careful with major investments that affect your family's financial situation: they need to be carefully evaluated. There could be some tension in your relationship, but it should not be too serious. Your partner may have health problems that could negatively impact their work; however, things should work out without too much difficulty.

If your house faces northwest, there is excellent news on all fronts. Your family will enjoy a lively, active and happy life, with many wonderful new developments. This is particularly favourable for those who run a family business.

At work, there is great potential for earnings and the possibility of turning negative events or situations to your advantage. There may be some tension with colleagues or your boss, but it should not be too serious. At work, you need to know how to balance development and available resources.

The northwest to southeast axis is the best in 2026. Estate agents and architecture and design firms located on this axis can be very successful in 2026.

If the front door is located here, this is extremely favourable. Expect good news, promotions, activities, progress in daily life, and advances.

If your kitchen is located here, it is very favourable.

If your living room is located here, it is very favourable. This room is active, lively, and brings happiness. Use it as much as possible, even for work.

If your bedroom is located here, it is not very favourable because the energies are very yang and outward-looking. It may be difficult to fall asleep, or you may suffer from light sleep. However, sex could be stellar! In any case, be careful of fatigue and overexcitement.

If your study/workroom is located here, it is extremely favourable for growth, development, earnings and studies.

SOUTH PALACE

8 4 9 SOUTH EAST	4 5 9 SOUTH	6 2 7 SOUTH WEST
7 3 8 EAST	9 5 1 CENTER	2 7 3 WEST
3 8 4 NORTH EAST	5 1 6 NORTH	1 6 2 NORTH WEST

Yearly star 5 Fire/Earth is visiting the South Palace. Star 5 is the most unfavourable one. It is related to sudden and unexpected changes, accident, misfortune, perversion, disaster, but spirituality and personal evolution too. Do not make any minor or major changes in this area. If possible, do not use this area. Do not add red colour. If you have to use this area, use it for a quiet activity. If the area is missing, cut, blocked – this is better in 2026. The same if here there is a bathroom, a toilet, a closet or secondary rooms. If you can see a lake, a pond, or a swimming pool outside in south direction, you are already safe. If you can use this area for meditation or spiritual purposes, that is good. Avoid risky activities and excesses of any kind. Be careful of accidents.

Like every other star, it is double-sided. It is the star of stability and sudden instability. Do not activate this star. This star is moderated using calmness, silence, quiet activities, symmetry, orderliness, and cleanness.

In 2026, this is the worst area because the configuration is very unfavourable. The southern area is also connected to Tai Sui, so, as with the northern area, it is essential not to start demolition or construction work in this area.

If the southern area is connected to the south-western area, it is even worse.

If your house faces south, your family's wealth may grow. The family may become more important or rise in social class. The change may be drastic or unexpected. This configuration is also favourable for the health of all family members, especially the elderly. A major problem, a pending suit or a difficult family situation may finally be resolved for the better.

However, you must be very careful at work and, more generally, in your external relationships. There are pitfalls, dangers and sudden changes lurking. There could be an unexpected or unwelcome change at work. At work and in your social relationships, new developments are not favourable and could cause problems or seriously challenge the status quo. The help provided by your family and the proactivity of some of your relatives are the key to resolving any problems.

If your house faces north, a favourable future lies ahead, with economic growth, increased authority (especially at work), expansion of your network of contacts, and even the possibility of career advancement or an offer for a new and better job. In fact, at work, a risk or a difficult and potentially dangerous situation could finally be resolved.

However, you need to be careful in your family life. Unexpected and sudden changes could find you unprepared. New developments are on the way, which will bring significant changes. A son, or more likely a daughter, may decide to leave the family home or move away for study or work reasons. Tension and misunderstandings may arise, be careful. Communication is the key to resolving any problems.

If the front door is located here, there is likely to be unfavourable news ahead; external changes may negatively impact family harmony. If possible, use another door this year, such as a secondary door, a service door, or a door leading to the garden. Otherwise, you may place a protective symbol facing north-east. Select the right date for activation using the lunisolar calendar (Section III).

If your kitchen is located here, check all equipment connected to fire or electricity (oven, stove, electrical panels, boiler, etc.). Do not undertake risky activities. Be careful of domestic accidents and fires. Do not make any changes, even minor ones.

If your living room is located here, avoid risky activities. Be careful of domestic accidents. Do not activate this room. Avoid important discussions. Do not make any changes, even minor ones.

If your bedroom is located here, check your health. Adopt a healthy lifestyle. Avoid important discussions. Do not make any changes, even minor ones. If possible, use another room.

If your study/workroom is located here, expect major unwelcome changes at work. Prepare for change. Avoid important discussions. There may be tension with colleagues. Pay close attention to financial management: avoid risks and financial gambles. Do not make any changes, even minor ones. If possible, change the area where you work.

CENTRE PALACE

8 4 9 SOUTH EAST	4 9 5 SOUTH	6 2 7 SOUTH WEST
7 3 8 EAST	9 1 5 CENTER	2 7 3 WEST
3 8 4 NORTH EAST	5 1 6 NORTH	1 6 2 NORTH WEST

Yearly star 1 Water is visiting the Central Palace. This is a very good star, bearing development, growth, expansion, studies, novelty, fame, success. It boosts academic success, especially in literature and arts. It helps studies and favours social network expansion. This area is also very good for long-term growth, gains, and success in your work. There is also a potential of earnings if this is your working position.

This is one of the best areas in 2026.

If you have a specific financial goal, you can reinforce star 1 with a small fountain in the centre of your home. The water must always be moving. Use the lunisolar calendar to select a good date to activate the fountain. Remember: never place a fountain in the bedroom, long corridors, secondary rooms or staircases. If the central area forms a single space with the north or northwest area, or east or southeast area, this is very favourable.

If the central area is cut off, missing, obstructed or blocked, most of the benefits are lost. If, on the other hand, the central area is free and open, the favourable effect of star 1 will be even stronger.

If the front door is located here (which sometimes happens), it is favourable. Good news is on the way; social relationships will develop and there will be harmony in general.

If your kitchen is located here, it is very favourable. Family sharing will increase.

If your living room is located here, it is very favourable. Family sharing will increase and interpersonal relationships between family members will develop and improve.

If your bedroom is located here, it is favourable.

If your study/workroom is located here, it is very favourable for growth, development, earnings, studies, and for expanding your network of contacts and clients.

SOUTH WEST PALACE

8 4 9 SOUTH EAST	4 9 5 SOUTH	6 2 7 SOUTH WEST
7 3 8 EAST	9 5 1 CENTER	2 7 3 WEST
3 8 4 NORTH EAST	5 1 6 NORTH	1 6 2 NORTH WEST

Yearly star 7 yin Metal is visiting the South West Palace. Star 7 bears disputes, theft, violence, contrast, judgement, viciousness, destruction, fast action. In general, it is not a good star. In this configuration, it is even more unfavourable for various reasons.

This area can bring health problems, as well as jealousy, quarrels, conflicts and theft. It is even more unfavourable if it is used by an adult woman. It can also bring envy and jealousy, anger and conflicts between women.

This is one of the worst areas in 2026. In general, with this configuration, it is best to pay attention to the security and privacy of this area.

If your house faces southwest, the situation is mixed. In your family, there may be problems and misunderstandings, difficulties with children, emotional distance. Outside, especially at work, there may be misunderstandings with colleagues, difficulties, and challenging relationships. A colleague or client may behave unfairly or try to steal something from you (an idea, a payment, a project): be careful! Working adult women are most at risk. At work, pay attention to how you manage your finances; also, check everything you do carefully to avoid making mistakes.

However, in the long run, it will be these work problems that will provide the right impetus to improve the family situation. Furthermore, this year, work problems will be linked to the family or will cause problems in the family. Conversely, family issues could conflict with work commitments. In essence, there will be problems in managing work and family life. Therefore, it is essential to establish a good relationship between these two areas and to be very clear and open with other family members. In general, life will be very inward-looking.

If your house faces northeast, the situation is mixed. On the one hand, there may be development and growth in your career, expansion of your professional activities and improvements in the workplace. This configuration is also favourable for the educational and academic success of young people.

On the other hand, you need to pay attention to the family situation. There is a possibility that someone may have health problems or poisoning. In addition, tension in the couple may rise. There could be infidelity, arguments and misunderstandings. There could be conflicts between brothers or sisters. A family member could behave unfairly or hide something important: be careful. Adult women will suffer most from all these difficulties. However, in the long term, it will be these very problems that will provide the right impetus for professional success. In general, life will be very outward-looking.

Therefore, this year, houses built on a northeast to southwest axis are not very good. If the south-west area is connected to the south area, it is even worse.

If the front door is located here, beware of theft and increase the security of your home. Do not trust outsiders who enter your home too much, as well as neighbours and friends. Someone may try to take something from you. Potential rivalry with an outsider.

If your kitchen is located here, pay particular attention to the quality of the food. Avoid important discussions in this area.

If your living room is located here, avoid important discussions with other family members. There may be arguments and disagreements.

If your bedroom is located here, it is a good idea to check the direction of the bed and, if necessary, move it in a favourable direction. There may be infidelity or extramarital affairs. Avoid important discussions in this area. Not favourable for conception and pregnancy.

If your study/workroom is located here, you can expect changes and difficulties, especially with partners, colleagues, and clients. Someone may try to manipulate you or steal something from you (an idea, a project, an award, a favour, a gain), or put you in a bad light. If possible, move your working area to another location.

WEST PALACE

8 4 9 SOUTH EAST	4 9 5 SOUTH	6 2 7 SOUTH WEST
7 3 8 EAST	9 5 1 CENTER	2 7 3 WEST
3 8 4 NORTH EAST	5 1 6 NORTH	1 6 2 NORTH WEST

Yearly star 3 yang Wood is visiting the West Palace. Star 3 is related to competition, assertion, arguments, ambition, inventions, ranking, determination, persistence, impulse, stubbornness, corruption. In this Palace, it is not favourable. Together with the north-east area, this is the area with the most contrasting energies.

It is an area with strong energy clashes. In this area, you need to be careful about domestic accidents and avoid risky activities.

If this room is used by a child, there may be discipline problems or attempts at rebellion, conflicts with the mother. There may be considerable tension, so it is best to avoid important discussions here. In general, this area is unfavourable for just about everything.

If your house faces west, the situation is more favourable for your family, but less favourable for work and external relationships. Your family's financial situation could improve but be careful of bad investments and overly expensive projects. If you have to make an important financial decision for your family's future, it is best to postpone it until next year.

At work, however, the situation could be very mixed, with various difficulties. There may be disputes and lawsuits, rapid changes, misunderstandings and disagreements with colleagues and clients. Be wary of fraud and scams. However, your family will support you in your difficulties, offering help and support. Professionally, it is a year suited to great challenges and ambitious projects, but you must bear in mind that the risks are very high.

If your house faces east, the situation is more favourable for work and external relationships, but less favourable for family life. At work, there may be gains and investments. However, as already noted above, you need to keep your finances under control and, above all, make your career choices in line with current trends, especially if you are involved in activities closely linked to trends (fashion, entertainment, content creation, etc.).

Things are a little more complicated in the family. First, there may be problems and arguments. The family could become involved in legal issues. In general, there is a lot of tension. Someone may be offended or feel that they have not received the recognition they deserve. Important family projects may be blocked or postponed indefinitely, even if everyone is committed to achieving them. Pregnancy is favoured.

If the front door is located here, tension, competition and rivalry with outsiders may arise.

If your kitchen is located here, be careful of domestic accidents.

If your living room is located here, be careful of domestic accidents. Avoid arguments (especially with children) and risky activities.

If your bedroom is located here, the quality of sleep may be negatively affected. Avoid important discussions.

If your study/workroom is located here, during the year you may experience conflicting and difficult-to-resolve work situations involving colleagues, bosses or clients. Be wary of gossip, scams, theft, fraud and the possibility of legal action against you. If you have the opportunity, you may want to consider moving to another area.

NORTH WEST PALACE

8 4 9 SOUTH EAST	4 9 5 SOUTH	6 2 7 SOUTH WEST
7 3 8 EAST	9 5 1 CENTER	2 7 3 WEST
3 8 4 NORTH EAST	5 1 6 NORTH	1 6 2 NORTH WEST

Yearly star 2 yin Earth is visiting the North West Palace. Star 2 has mixed qualities. Star 2 has to do with activating your social network, nurturing, fertility, wealth, health, completion; but diseases, blockages and stagnation too.

In this palace, star 2 is quite favourable, particularly for activities related to construction, property sales and architecture. However, in this configuration, it can lead to relationship problems, irreconcilable differences and attempts by the female to dominate the male.

If the northwest area forms a single environment with the central or north area, this is very favourable.

If your house faces northwest, there is excellent news on all fronts. Your family will enjoy a lively, active and happy life, with many wonderful new developments. This is particularly favourable for those who run a family business.

At work, there is great potential for earnings and the possibility of turning negative events or situations to your advantage. There may be some tension with colleagues or your boss, but it should not be too serious. At work, you need to know how to balance development and available resources.

If your house faces southeast, there is excellent news on all fronts. At work, there may be growth, earnings and success – especially if you are involved in architecture, design, construction, property sales and investments. In general, favourable developments await you.

Your family finances could improve; there is great potential for accumulation. However, be careful with major investments that affect your family's financial situation: they need to be carefully evaluated. There could be some tension in your relationship, but it should not be too serious. Your partner may have health problems that could negatively impact their work; however, things should work out without too much difficulty.

The northwest to southeast axis is the best in 2026. Estate agents and architecture and design firms located on this axis can be very successful in 2026.

If the front door is located here, it is moderately favourable.

If your kitchen is located here, it is acceptable.

If your living room is located here, it is important to be receptive to the needs of other family members and to be available.

If your bedroom is located here, it is not very favourable. Pay attention to sexual health and intimacy as a couple. Mutual respect is important.

If your study/workroom is located here, it is favourable, particularly for activities related to construction, design and real estate.

FATE 9 FIRE (2024 - 2043)

In Feng Shui, we use a spiral view of time, composed of different types of time cycles, which periodically repeat, ad infinitum. But not only that: in Feng Shui, time and space have a strong correlation.

There is a great cycle of 180 years, divided into 3 eras of 60 years (upper era, middle era, lower era); each era in turn is divided into 3 cycles of 20 years. A 20-year cycle is called a Period or Yun. In a great 180-years cycle, therefore, there are 9 Yuns (Periods), numbered in ascending order from 1 to 9 - like the 9 Palaces of the Ba Gua.

We are currently in a great 180-year cycle that began in 1864 and will end in 2043. This cycle is divided into 3 eras: the era of the yin Earth Rabbit (upper era, 1864-1923), the era of the yang Metal Dragon (middle era, 1924-1983), the era of the yin Metal Snake (lower era, 1984-2043).

Yun 9 (2024-2043) is the last 20-year cycle of the yin Metal Snake era. That's why 2024 has been an important turning point. In 2044 we will enter another great 180-year cycle (2044-2223), and another 60-year era (the yang Water Horse, 2044-2103). The first 20 years (2044-2063) of this great cycle will be labeled as Yun 1, or Period 1: a 20-year period of rebirth and re-foundation.

Yun 9 is connected to the Fire energy. It will bring great changes and will have the flavour of closure: all that has been started must be brought to completion. After the end of this cycle, we will have a new rebirth with Yun 1.

To relate time cycles to Feng Shui, we use the San Yuan style. The aim of this style is to capture energy changes over time in buildings and homes. To describe the energy change of buildings over time, the San Yuan style uses the division of time into periods (Yun) associated with the 9 stars of the Ba Gua Lo Shu.

Globally, Period 9 will bring major changes: it will be a 20-year period of evolution, of transformation, of revolution, bringing sudden and unforeseen mutations. Science will make great strides, particularly information and technology fields. That is why, in Period 9, it is important to follow the changes carefully and to stay up-to-date.

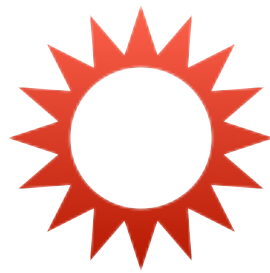

Young women, and more generally ordinary people, will be the protagonists of this period of evolution. Period 9 also brings a large dose of unpredictability, so it is important to follow the spirit of the times and be fluid: we must accept change and be able to adapt quickly. It is a convulsive period, full of transformations and rapid changes. Many aspects of today's society may change, to be perceived in a new light. One of the key words for Period 9 is: rapid and unpredictable evolution.

From a Feng Shui perspective, the incoming new energies bring about an upheaval of certain arrangements in the energetic structure of dwellings.

In conjunction with these changes, it is important to know the characteristics of Period 9 in order to know how to build, design or adapt our homes. A Feng Shui audit of any home or workplace is recommended - all the more so if you intend to buy, build, move into a new home or carry out a major renovation.

Our home can either protect us from negative influences or activate them. By properly preparing our home for Period 9, we will be able to welcome favourable influences and reject unfavourable ones. This is especially important in Period 9, given its characteristics of instability, unpredictability, transformation, and rapid evolution.

CONSTRUCTION WORK

	The month is terrible. You need a to use a good date.
	The month is not that favorable. Try the best to select a good date.
	Neutral month, so you won't get that benefit, but neither handicap. It is still important to select a favorable date. At least, avoid bad dates.
	Favorable month. Just avoid worst dates.
	Very favorable month. Just avoid worst dates.

Why selecting a good date is so important for construction work?

Well, construction work can be quite expensive and extenuating, So, we don't want delays, any kind of problem, quarrels, mistakes, problems with authority and so on. We also want the work well-executed and long-lasting. But especially, we don't want wrong time or wrong 'space' to negatively affect our life. That's why Date Selection is so important for construction work!

When we talk about construction work, the key is avoiding bad dates. It is not that important that you choose the best date – in fact you could use any good, very good or neutral date, or even slightly unfavourable. What is important is avoiding unfavourable and very unfavourable dates.

In 2026, you should pay particular attention to the northern and southern areas. In addition, the western and south-western areas often have configurations that are unsuitable for construction work.

If you are planning any refurbishment, renewal, taking down walls, excavation, construction work, ..., you need to select an appropriate day and time.

Using the 12 Day Officials is important too. For excavation and demolition, a CLASH day is ok! But if you are (mostly) building new, you should use an ESTABLISH, SETTLE, SUCCESS day or, at least, a neutral Official.

At the same time, ESTABLISH, SETTLE and SUCCESS day are very good Officials, but they are not that suitable for excavation or demolition.

When using 12 Day Officials, you must look at what is proper for the activity you are going to start. You can get all the information about 12 Day Officials in Section II here.

If you are planning big changes, that involve most area of the building, start in a good palace and then move on. In 2026, don't start work in northern or southern areas.

So, if you are planning construction work in the yang Fire Horse year, it is strategic to check all the 12 months in advance and make a clear schedule – which, by the way, will also help you to better organize your life!

Remember that the North Palace is always center bottom of the 3x3 grid.
You can find accurate starting time of each month (GMT+0) in the lunisolar calendar.

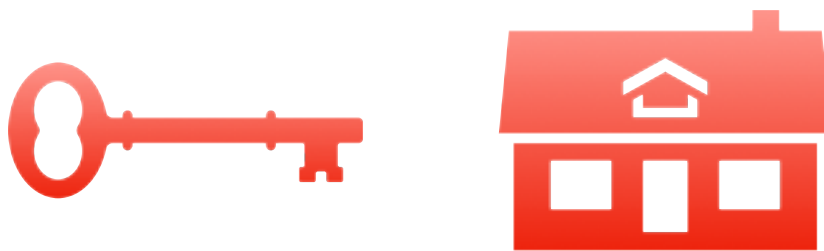

Use these tables for important business trips (or for important personal reasons), long holidays (at least two weeks), removals and transfers to another country, another region or another city. For transfers within the same town, they must be such that your location changes in relation to the town centre. If you move house but remain in the same neighbourhood, this is considered a relocation. However, do not use these tables for normal daily commutes.

MOVING INTO A NEW HOME IN 2026

The moment we move into a new home is very important because it will influence us for years to come. Choosing the wrong moment can create major problems and difficulties, especially in the first 1-3 years after the move. The energies that are absorbed and fixed at the moment of entry will accompany us and, if they are unfavourable, will exert their negative influence for a long time. For this reason, Feng Shui places great importance on the moment of entry, paying particular attention to choosing a favourable moment and carefully avoiding negative energy configurations.

We need to take a small step back. It is not only the moment we move into the new home that is important, but also the moment we sign the purchase (or rental) contract.

You should never sign the contract on your personal clash day, or on a day with REMOVE, CLASH and CLOSE Day Official. FULL should also be avoided. Always prefer ESTABLISH, SETTLE, SUCCESS or BALANCE Days.

When you sign the contract, the annual 5 star (and preferably also the monthly one) should not be present in the Rear Palace of your home, or in the Palace where the front door is located. Furthermore, you must not have Sui Po or San Sha in the rear of the home/building.

These situations are acceptable if you purchase the house but plan to move the following year (perhaps because there is construction work to be done).

In 2026, Sui Po and San Sha are located in the north, so the worst houses to move into are those with their backs facing north. In this case, if you are still forced to move for reasons of necessity, you really need to be very careful in selecting the best possible date.

The actual moving day is also very important. Obviously, you will have already been to your new home many times before moving in, to bring furniture and prepare the house. However, in Feng Shui, we consider the official moving day to be the day you cook your first meal in your new home and sleep there for the first night.

This is the day we need to pay particular attention to. For this date, you must absolutely avoid your personal clash day, and days with REMOVE, CLASH and CLOSE Day Official. FULL should also be avoided. Always prefer ESTABLISH, SETTLE, SUCCESS or BALANCE Days. In addition, you must avoid days that clash with the year (Sui Po) and days with many negative aspects (e.g. annual or monthly Sha). If possible, choose a day with favourable personal protections or stars, or, if you cannot do better, at least a neutral day.

The Flying Stars present at the time of entry must also be carefully checked. We want to avoid the 5 star in the Rear Palace of your home, in the Palace where the master bedroom is located, or in the Palace where the front door is located. The 7 star on the front door should also be avoided. Pay particular attention to the annual 5 and 7 stars.

Furthermore, you must not have Sui Po or San Sha in the rear of your home/building or on the front door. The ideal situation is to have a good Flying Star configuration (or at least a neutral one, if nothing better is possible) on the front door, in the master bedroom and in the Rear Palace.

If it is a major move that takes you significantly away from your previous residence, you should also refer to the previous chapter.

Of course, it is not easy to put all these things together. The important thing is to proceed calmly, using this Guide as an aid. In fact, the Guide contains all the information you need to calculate the best date to move in. However, if you have any difficulties, we recommend that you seek professional advice.

The key point is to plan the move well in advance and check the energy configurations beforehand, so that you can organise yourself in the best possible way.

Unfortunately, especially in the case of renting, time is sometimes limited and there is not much room for manoeuvre. In this case, choosing the date becomes even more important. It is better to spend three days in a hotel but move in on the right date because, as we have already mentioned, the energy configurations that are set on this date will accompany you for a long time.

For example, moving into your new home on your personal clash day means that the house will reject you and not welcome you, or will not welcome your family in a favourable way. Usually, a change of home also implies a change of life (more or less significant): we want this change to be favourable, and everything to flow smoothly to achieve a better and more satisfying situation for all family members. The cases we have observed, in which the person moved into the house at a very unfavourable time, have created enormous problems and difficulties. In situations of this kind, it is advisable to organise a “new entry” into the house, which means moving away from the house for a certain period of time and then moving back in on a suitable date. However, for an intervention of this kind, it is definitely advisable to seek the help of an expert.

As we have said, in 2026, the least suitable houses for moving into or purchasing are those facing south.

The annual star 5 is located in the south in 2026, so the front door, master bedroom and rear palace should not be located in the southern part of your new home. In particular, if these configurations are present, you must absolutely avoid moving in the month of the Tiger (around February), the month of the Rabbit (around March), the month of the Snake (around May), the month of the Goat (around July), the month of the Rooster (around September), the month of the Dog (around October), the month of the Pig (around November), and the month of the Rat (around December). Therefore, the least unfavourable months are April, June, August, and January 2027.

The annual star 7 is located in the southwest in 2026, so houses with the main entrance door facing southwest should be avoided. If you find yourself in this situation, you should definitely avoid moving in February, April, May, September, November, and January 2027. The least unfavourable months are June, July, August, and October.

Houses with the main entrance door facing north should also be avoided, because this year the north is the direction of Sui Po. If you find yourself in this situation, you should definitely avoid moving in March, June, August, October, and December.

If there is a secondary door in another direction, you can use that as your main entrance door throughout the year of the Fire Horse, and then activate and start using the original entrance door the following year.

Good luck with your move!

PLACING A FOUNTAIN OR AQUARIUM IN 2026

The fountain and aquarium are connected to water, which has always been associated with development, economic growth and the generation of wealth (not only in Feng Shui). However, the fountain or aquarium must be well positioned and activated on the right date – otherwise they can cause a loss of wealth!

There are fairly precise (and also very logical) guidelines for positioning the fountain or aquarium, which you can find here. Follow these rules, it is very important!

It is also essential to calculate the correct date to activate the fountain or aquarium. Using this Guide, it will not be difficult for you to calculate an optimal date.

If the water feature is intended to last for many years, or is of a certain size, other more important levels of analysis must be taken into account, such as the home's flying star birth chart, and more. In this case, we recommend seeking professional help. Here, however, we are talking about a smaller and more manageable water feature.

Below are the 10 best choices (directions and times) for placing a fountain or aquarium in 2026. Remember: you will still need to follow the rules for placement and calculate a suitable date. You can take the direction of the fountain or aquarium from the centre of the room in which it is placed. Please note, however, that this year, south and southwest rooms are not suitable for activating an aquarium or fountain.

It may be that you cannot use the best option, or even the second best, simply because there is no suitable place in your home in that direction. In this case, always give priority to the placement rules, because a poorly positioned water installation will not work... even if you have chosen the right direction and date. That is precisely why we are presenting you with 10 different possibilities, all of which are excellent!

As you can see, in 2026 the central area appears many times. This is because the annual star 1 is in the centre. So, even though it is usually impossible to place a water installation in the centre of a room, in 2026 it is possible to do so in the centre of the home, if the necessary requirements are met. This is a special case, in which it is best to understand “centre” as the central area of the home.

THE WEALTH CORNER IN 2026

While the fountain and aquarium are linked to development, economic growth and wealth generation, the wealth corner (or wealth location) is linked to the ability to save and accumulate earnings. Water and the wealth corner are, in a sense, complementary: it would be foolish to earn a lot but spend it all!

The wealth corner must also be well positioned and activated on the right date – otherwise it will not work! For example, you should never place a fountain or aquarium in the wealth corner, as this can cause financial losses! So, be very careful.

There are fairly precise (and also very logical) guidelines for arranging the wealth corner, which you can find here. Follow these rules, it is very important!

It is also essential to calculate the correct date to activate the wealth corner. Using this Guide, it will not be difficult for you to calculate an optimal date.

Usually, the wealth corner is meant to last for many years, as it gains strength over time. An expert or professional may consider other more important levels of analysis, such as the home's flying star birth chart, and more. Here, however, we provide the best activation options for 2026.

Below are the 11 best choices (directions and times) for positioning the wealth corner in 2026. Remember: you will still need to follow the rules for placement and calculate a suitable date. You can take the direction of the wealth corner from the centre of the room in which it is placed. Please note, however, that this year, south and southwest rooms are not suitable for activating the wealth corner.

You may not be able to use the best option, or even the second-best option, simply because there is no suitable place in your home in that direction. In this case, always give priority to the placement rules, because a poorly positioned wealth corner will not work... even if you have chosen the right direction and date. That's why we're presenting you with 11 different possibilities, all of which are excellent!

BA GUA LO SHU

When applying to a building/house, the North Palace must be aligned to the geographical north. Usually, you can take this measure with a simple compass. The Ba Gua must NOT be used aligning the North Palace to the main door: this is wrong.

The Ba Gua is a 3x3 grid. It must be drawn fitting your house plan. Each of the 9 boxes is called 'Palace'. Each Palace has a Lord. The Lord is the energy hosted in the Palace (for instance, the North Palace is ruled by Lord Water, the South is Lord Fire's Palace, and so on).

The colour in each box DOES NOT MEAN you have to paint the room that way. It is just an easy, visual way to remember the colour associated to the Body Energy (i.e. the Lord) ruling the box.

The number in each box is called 'Star' and it mainly represents the Late Heaven Sequence of Trigrams (see further), especially when it 'flies'. So, 1 is the star related to the North Palace, and especially to Water energy residing in the north. Moreover, it is connected to the Trigram 'Water' or 'Well', also residing in the north.

TRIGRAMS: EARLY HEAVEN SEQUENCE

This is the former arrangement of the 8 Trigrams. It is symmetrical.

TRIGRAMS: LATE HEAVEN SEQUENCE

This is the latter arrangement of the 8 Trigrams. It is not symmetrical. It is connected to seasons and to the Ba Gua Lo Shu layout of energies.

THE 10 HEAVENLY STEMS

They represent pure Heaven Qi, based on eastern 5-movement theory. They are divided in two groups: the yang stems and the yin stems. They get a direction (24 Mountains) and an image associated. As a Day Masters, each Stem has specific natural features.

乙	Yin Wood	East 3	Grass, shrubs, leaves	Communication, balanced and gradual growth, adaptable
丙	Yang Fire	South 1	Sun, a big fire	Transformation, light, fame
丁	Yin Fire	South 3	Stars, a small fire or man-made fire	Empathy, warmth, fervency

CALCULATING THE YEAR GUA

In Feng Shui, each one of the 9 Stars (or Guas) is connected to a direction, a location (Palace), a trigram, an energy, a colour, and a few specific qualities (check here). We can associate a star to a person too, based on the birth year. It then takes the name 'Ming Gua', which is a person's Destiny Gua.

The yearly Gua is connected to Heaven Qi. Because Heaven Qi is descending, while Earth Qi is ascending, the yearly Guas are descending from 9 to 1, and then they repeat.

The same descending annual Gua is attributed to men, while a different, ascending Gua is attributed to women, who are more connected to Earth Qi.

However, there is a small difference between the annual Gua and the Ming Gua. When the annual Gua is 5, men are given Ming Gua 2 (yin Earth), while women are given Ming Gua 8 (yang Earth). There is a reason for this, which we will not go into here.

YEAR	YEARLY LO SHU NUMBER (YEARLY GUA)	MING GUA (MEN)	MING GUA (WOMEN)
2015	3 yang Wood	3	3
2016	2 yin Earth	2	4
2017	1 yin/yang Water	1	8 (5)
2018	9 yin/yang Fire	9	6
2019	8 yang Earth	8	7
2020	7 yin Metal	7	8
2021	6 yang Metal	6	9
2022	5 yin/yang Earth	2 (5)	1
2023	4 yin Wood	4	2
2024	3 yang Wood	3	3
2025	2 yin Earth	2	4

IMPORTANT NOTE: in eastern energetics, the yearly energy shift is set on February 3rd/4th. So, if you are born between January 1st and February 2nd/3rd, you will get the previous year Gua. Be careful!

There is a very simple formula for calculating the Ming Gua.

For males, you add up the four digits of the birth year; keep adding until you get a digit between 1 and 9; then from the FIXED number 11 you subtract this digit; the result is the yearly Gua. If the result is larger than 9, it must be reduced once more. If the result is 5, the person will get Ming Gua 2.

For females, you add up the four digits of the birth year; keep adding until you get a digit between 1 and 9; then add the FIXED number 4; the result is the (female) Ming Gua. If the result is larger than 9, it must be reduced once more. If the result is 5, the person will get Ming Gua 8.

Let's look at some examples.

Male, born on November 25th, 1972: $1+9+7+2 = 19$; $1+9 = 10$; $1+0 = 1$; 11-1 = 10; $1+0 = 1$. He will get Ming Gua 1 Water.

Male, born on January 18th, 2004. Since he is born between January 1st and February 2nd/3rd, we are still in the previous yin Water Goat year, so we start the calculation with 2003 and not with 2004: $2+0+0+3 = 5$; 11-5 = 6. He will get Ming Gua 6 yang Metal.

Male, born on March 22nd, 1995: $1+9+9+5 = 24$; $2+4 = 6$; 11-6 = 5. Since the year Gua is 5, he will get Ming Gua 2 yin Earth.

Female, born on June 3rd, 1981: $1+9+8+1 = 19$; $1+9 = 10$; $1+0 = 1$; 1+4 = 5. Since the year Gua is 5, she will get Ming Gua 8 yang Earth.

Female, born on September 11th, 1993: $1+9+9+3 = 22$; $2+2 = 4$; 4+4 = 8. She will get Ming Gua 8 yang Earth.

Female, born on February 1st, 1990. Since she is born between January 1st and February 2nd/3rd, we are still in the yin Earth Snake year, so we start the calculation with 1989 and not with 1990: $1+9+8+9 = 27$; $2+7 = 9$; 9+4 = 13; $1+3 = 4$. She will get Ming Gua 4 yin Wood.

CALCULATING THE MONTH GUA

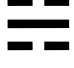

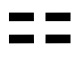

It is possible to associate a Lo Shu (Gua) number not only to the year, but also to the month, day and hour. You can easily find the monthly and daily Gua in the lunisolar calendar (Section III).

Anyway, you can find below simple table for calculating the Lo Shu number of the month (month Gua). The months shown are based on the solar cycle. The dates are approximate and may vary by one or two days. For an accurate calculation, you should use the lunisolar calendar.

To calculate the month Gua, you must first calculate the year Gua, then just look at the table below.

There are 60 Pillars and 64 Hexagrams. Traditionally, 4 Hexagrams were taken out from space and time level of manifestation, because considered too powerful and metaphysical. They are: 1 Initiating (Heaven over Heaven), 2 Responding (Earth over Earth), 29 Darkness (Water over Water), 30 Brightness (Fire over Fire). This seems the most correct approach. In modern times, however, each of these four pillars (marked in the table above) is paired to two Hexagrams. Which way you use, depends on your approach.

THE 5 ELEMENTS

In eastern Chinese energetics we have 5 Elements, also known as 5 Movements or 5 Energies. They are: Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal, Water. There are complex relations between these 5 Energies. However, for the time being, it is enough to know and understand the Generating Cycle and the Controlling Cycle.

We can see these two cycles as complementary yin/yang aspects of the same Unity. The generating cycle produces infinite growth, without limitation. It is considered yin. Its counterpart (the controlling cycle), on the other hand, limits development while maintaining stability. It is considered yang.

Each energy, after fulfilling its function, naturally and harmoniously transforms into the next energy. This relationship is represented by the generating cycle.

However, in order to maintain itself, each energy is naturally brought to control another energy. This relationship is represented by the controlling cycle.

GENERATING CYCLE
WOOD	木	GENERATES	FIRE	火
FIRE	火	GENERATES	EARTH	土
EARTH	土	GENERATES	METAL	金
METAL	金	GENERATES	WATER	水
WATER	水	GENERATES	WOOD	木

and the cycle starts again

CONTROLLING CYCLE
WOOD	木	CONTROLS	EARTH	土
FIRE	火	CONTROLS	METAL	金
EARTH	土	CONTROLS	WATER	水
METAL	金	CONTROLS	WOOD	木
WATER	水	CONTROLS	FIRE	火

and the cycle starts again

BA ZI: THE 60 PILLARS AND THE PERSON'S BIRTH CHART

In eastern energetics, we have 10 heavenly stems, representing Heaven's Qi, and 12 earthly branches, representing Earth's Qi. When Heaven meets Earth, stems and branches get paired.

We should expect $10 \times 12 = 120$ possible combinations, but due to the way of combining stems and branches, there are only 60 possible combinations.

This is because a yang stem can only be associated to a yang branch, and similarly for the yin.

These 60 combinations are called the '60 Pillars'.

They represent 60 energy archetypes, 60 possible natural ways of manifestation in the material world. These 60 Pillars are also used to count time in a spiral pattern. They are associated to years, months, days, and hours: smaller spirals nesting into greater spirals.

Because you are born in a certain year, in a certain month, in certain day, and at a certain hour, you will get 4 Pillars to describe that time. Therefore, in Chinese Astrology (Ba Zi, Four Pillars of Destiny), a person's birth chart is represented by those 4 Pillars. This is your natal chart. It is also called the 'Ming', or 'Heavenly Decree'.

Each pillar consists of two parts:

an upper one representing the heavenly influence (Shen), and a lower one representing the earthly influence (Po). You can see an example in the picture. You can clearly see the 4 Pillars, reading from right-to-left: the year pillar, the month pillar, the day pillar and the hour pillar. You can also see the (upper) 4 stems over the (lower) 4 branches.

You can easily calculate your personal birth chart using Ba Zi Calculator.

The birth chart can be considered a representation of the person's life and Destiny in this incarnation.

Whilst your birth chart represents your life layout, there is a specific element representing YOU inside your life. This is called 'Day Master': you can find it in the day stem (third top from the right). The Day Master represents the person himself within his life. It is always represented by a heavenly stem. In Ba Zi, most of the analysis is done based on the Day Master.

The position under the Day Master is important too.

It is the 'House and Spouse Palace'. This is your personal zodiacal animal, while the one most known in the West is the year animal, which is very general.

Of course, the Day Master must relate to the other elements (energies) within the birth chart. Even if you are not familiar with the Chinese characters, you can easily see which energy they are associated with by using colour: green for Wood, red for Fire, yellow for Earth, grey for Metal and blue for Water.

You can use this basic information to tailor up on your personal chart the dates you are choosing for important activities, to get maximum benefit.

In the next chapter, we'll see what the other energies in the birth chart represent for the Day Master. Note that this depends on the energy of the Day Master: the same element (energy) can represent a different function to a different Day Master.

On the next page is the 60-pillar chart, read from right to left (the first pillar, top right, is the Yang Wood Rat). You can use it in many ways, for example to keep track of which pillars are most and least favourable in your birth chart. On a professional level, you can use it in more detail with 6 different characterisations (very favourable, favourable, neutral, mixed, unfavourable, very unfavourable).

BA ZI: THE SIX FUNCTIONS (LIU SHEN)

Identification

This is the energy of the Day Master himself, the energy in which the Day Master recognises himself.

Friend / Parallel

This is the same energy as the Day Master.

Friend primarily represents brothers and sisters, cousins, friends and work colleagues, all people of the same age group or social background, rivals and competitors, all situations we recognise as 'friendly', brotherhood and competition.

Output

This is the energy generated by the Day Master.

Output represents interaction with the outside world, outer life, the attempt to change situations to our advantage, understanding and manipulation of the outside world, the person's evolution, visibility, creativity; as adults it represents activity and one's own work, and also earnings from regular work. It also represents children, especially for females.

Target / Wealth

This is the energy controlled by the Day Master.

Although this function is commonly known as 'Wealth', it has many other far more important meanings, which are usually overlooked because people are obsessed with wealth. In our setting, Target represents dreams, needs, and expectations as a child; constraints, responsibilities, commitments, and bonds as an adult; it also represents wealth, property, assets, rewards, inheritances. It is the 'trap' function. It is associated with the father. It is associated with the partner (for males).

Power

It is the energy that controls the Day Master.

Basically, Power represents the energies of the universe that oppose us. It is associated with authority, reputation, career, discipline and self-discipline, judgement and self-judgement. It represents the various forms of authority we have to deal with in our daily lives, such as the government, the police, everyone that has the right to control us; obligations and duties. In certain cases, it can be associated with persecution, imprisonment, problems with authority. It also stands for duties and obligations. It is associated with the partner (for females).

Resource

It is the generating energy of the Day Master.

It is primarily associated with the mother, your parents and your extended family, the values and upbringing passed on to us, our origins and roots, inner life, recognition and acknowledgement, comfort in life, health, intelligence and deep thought, mediumistic or extrasensory gifts.

Each of these functions can be 'favourable' or 'unfavourable' in the birth chart. So, if there is an abundance of Target in your birth chart, this does not necessarily mean that you will become rich. In fact, it could be just the opposite.

Ba Zi is a deep and complex matter: to understand your birth chart and the Destiny that has been reserved for you, a professional reading is necessary.

BA ZI: SIX FUNCTIONS, GENERATING CYCLE AND CONTROLLING CYCLE

Since the six functions are constructed according to the relationships between the five energies, a generating cycle and a controlling cycle can also be shown for them. However, these cycles are now independent of the original energies.

SIX FUNCTIONS – GENERATING CYCLE
FRIEND	GENERATES	OUTPUT
OUTPUT	GENERATES	TARGET

BA ZI: THE 10 FAIRIES (TEN GODS)

We can further deepen the study of the six functions by considering the yin/yang polarity with respect to the Day Master. In this way, we obtain what are classically called '10 Fairies' or '10 Gods'. This is a reference chapter for professionals; if you are a beginner, you can safely skip it.

BA ZI: KARMIC ASPECTS

Nowadays, everyone talks about Karma!

But the ancient Sages, after much research, were able to identify the conformations within the birth chart that indicate a karmic residue to be fulfilled. Not only that, but they were also able to identify the quality of negative karma, and the most appropriate behaviour to adopt in this life.

When a karmic aspect is found in the birth chart, we speak of a fixed karmic aspect or karmic marking. However, a karmic aspect could also be activated by a transiting luck pillar (decennial, annual, etc.). In this case, the karmic aspect is not fixed and becomes a karmic test. Usually, the karmic test has the duration of the pillar that bears it.

All karmic aspects are related to the earthly branches.

Of course, there is a lot to know about karmic aspects. To properly analyse any karmic marking in your birth chart and karmic tests, a thorough knowledge of Ba Zi is required. Only an experienced practitioner can correctly identify karmic aspects, their strength, their effect on a person's life and their danger.

This is a reference chapter for professionals; if you are a beginner, you can safely skip it. Below, you will find a complete list of known karmic aspects.

Karmic Punishment

There are four types of karmic punishment.

Ungrateful Punishment (Three Fires) has to do with trust, loyalty, betraying or being betrayed, cheating or being cheated.

Bullying Punishment has to do with obsession, being in a painful situation from which one cannot escape.

Ungrateful Punishment and Bullying Punishment are considered to be the worst karmic aspects.

Uncivilized Punishment has to do with the lack of respect and gratitude.

Self Punishment has to do with persisting doing something worthless, stupid, or even dangerous.

SELF PUNISHMENT	辰辰	午午

Karmic Harms

A karmic harm is compared to receiving a stab wound, and then having a great loss of blood when the knife is pulled out. Karmic harms are very dangerous and can bring great suffering.

Karmic Destructions

A karmic destruction leads to the acquisition of vices and bad habits (destructive behaviour), such as going to bed late, not exercising, eating too much, smoking, drinking too much alcohol, drugs, always having a negative attitude, fantasies replacing reality, etc.

DATE SELECTION: PERSONAL STARS

In this chapter, you will find some information that allows you to customise the Date Selection, according to the specific characteristics of your birth chart and your Day Master.

If you are a beginner, I advise you to skip this chapter for the time being and do some practice first. Later, you can also integrate this knowledge into your choice of dates.

In Chinese Astrology, a 'star' is a particular influence attached to a heavenly stem, or an earthly branch.

Warning: do not confuse Ba Zi stars with flying stars. Those are two different things!

A star can be favourable or unfavourable; moreover, there are really many types of stars and each one is calculated and used differently. For example, some stars are only important if they are present in the birth chart, others are valid for both birth chart analysis and the calculation of a date, and others are only important when calculating a date for a specific activity.

In general, if a star is present in the birth chart, it will exert its influence (favourable or unfavourable) for much of the person's life.

On the other hand, when you use a star for the date calculation, the star will 'load' that date with its specific characteristics, making it more effective and more useful for achieving the goal you have set.

In this chapter we will focus on certain stars, either calculated on the basis of the Day Master or other elements of the birth chart, specifically for use in Date Selection.

You want all these stars to be in the day pillar of the date you choose. If it is to be found in the month pillar or year pillar, that is also good.

Another distinctive and intriguing aspect of stars is that they are always connected to a direction. In fact, a star is always connected to a heavenly stem or an earthly branch. Since those are always connected to a direction, the star is also connected to a direction. The following tables contain all this information.

This means that you can also integrate a personalised direction into the action you perform on the day you chose.

For example, if you want to place a desk in order to be successful at school, for academic success, you can start your studies on the date you have calculated and place the desk in the direction connected to the star. Specifically, you can have the direction of the star behind you or, if this is not possible, in front of you.

For example, if you want to place a Feng Shui activator to find a new partner, in addition to the date you have calculated for the activation, you can place the activator in the direction connected to the customised love star.

If you own a Luo Pan or a simple compass, you can use the exact direction connected to the element that carries the star (see here).

Usually, using personal stars to achieve specific results has a stronger and faster effect than a non-customised date.

Of course, from a professional point of view things are a little more complicated. You may find contradictions between personal stars, flying stars, the 12 Day Officials and other methods used. This is perfectly normal. To get more insight, look at these video guides.

If you are not sure what you are doing, we recommend that you seek professional help.

Heavenly Virtue (Sun Protection)

This star brings help and protection, helps with life's difficulties, turns the negative into positive, and carries celestial messages. It can alleviate unfavourable periods. It is considered the most auspicious of all the stars. Generally, we always try to have this star for the most important activities (marriage, investments, real estate purchases, transfers, legal proceedings, etc.), in the day, hour or month pillar. It can be carried by an earthly branch or a heavenly stem.

The San Sha are calculated based on an Earthly Branch. Robbery Sha has to do with being robbed or losing something, even metaphorically. Calamity Sha is the worst Sha; it bears disaster. Earth Sha bears isolation, immobility, delays, blockages. All these are clearly marked up in the lunisolar calendar.

San Sha can be applied in many ways and different circumstances. They work in Feng Shui and in Chinese Astrology. If you don't know what you are doing, just follow the advice and skip the technical part.

DATE SELECTION: THE 12 OFFICIALS

It is a simple but effective method, which associates to the day pillar (earthly branch) some distinctive characteristics, suitable for specific activities. This method could be integrated with other information, the Feng Shui Flying Stars, the Ba Zi personal stars, the favourable and unfavourable energies of the person.

There are 12 Day Officers. Each of them favours specific activities and outputs and opposes different ones. Reading the description, you should use the best one(s) for your specific activity.

DATE SELECTION: THE HOUR PILLAR

The basic unit of time for choosing dates is the day.

For many activities (especially those involving other people), finding a suitable date is usually quite a challenge, especially considering that Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays reduce the number of available dates by at least 35%! Offices are closed on weekends and holidays. In addition, you will usually not be able to use the night hours. This means that of all the possible combinations of the four pillars in a year, you can only actually use 40-45% of them. So, if you manage to get a good day, you have already done most of the work!

Finally, sometimes you manage to get an appointment on the day you choose, but you cannot choose the time. You're told to come at 9am, but you don't know when they will call you inside.

So, when is the hour pillar important?

Let's start by saying that it's always better to choose a good time if possible - but if you can't, don't worry too much!

The time pillar is less important for activities whose effects are expected to last for a long time: for example, a wedding, the signing of a contract to buy or sell a property, the founding of a company, the launch of an advertising campaign that will last for several weeks or months.

On the other hand, the hour pillar is more important for activities that have an immediate impact, in the hours after they begin, or that end in a short time. For example: the presentation of a new product, a party or a ceremony, the discussion of a dissertation, making an important phone call, making arrangements, deciding to go shopping and doing so immediately, deciding to go on a boat trip despite the coming bad weather, etc.

The hour pillar is also important for activities where the starting time is crucial, such as getting on a plane or train.

There are two other cases where the hour pillar can be used to optimise the result.

1. When you send an important e-mail or registered letter, you can control the time of sending it, but you cannot control the time of receiving it, the time of reading it, and the time of making a decision on your request or proposal.

The same is true when you file a request or petition to a court: you can control the time of sending, but you cannot control the time when it is read, the time when decisions are made on your request, and the time when a hearing is scheduled. In these cases, it is always best to pay attention to the hour pillar, because we have no other options.

2. If you have little freedom of choice (few possible days), you will choose the least bad and pay particular attention to the hour pillar.

The use of these tables is intended for more advanced students. There are many stars to take into account, and some aspects may seem contradictory - although in reality they are not, as they concern different reading levels. So, if you are just starting to learn Date Selection, we advise you to skip the hour pillar for now and start using it when you are more experienced. If you have any doubts, we recommend that you seek professional advice.

CALCULATING THE HOUR PILLAR

The table below is called “The 5 Rats Chasing the Hour”. It is used to calculate the hour pillar. You can also look at all 12 hour pillars of the selected day at a glance. To calculate the hour pillar, you need to know the day pillar, particularly the day stem. Then, find the column corresponding to the day stem in the upper rows and cross it with the hour row on the right.

On the following pages, you will find first the favourable and unfavourable characteristics of the various stars (legend), and then the detailed characteristics of each of the 12 hours of each day (tables). These tables are calculated according to the day pillar (specifically, according to the heavenly stem of the day, starting with 甲 yang Wood).

To use these tables, first identify the day pillar, then the heavenly stem of the day, then go to the relevant page, then proceed to the time selection.

Note that the characteristics given are calculated based on the day pillar only. Other astrological aspects and symbolic stars may be present. These aspects may derive from the month or year pillar of the selected date, or they may be custom aspects derived from your birth chart.

For example, some of your personal stars that you find here may be present.

Select a time that is favourable for the activity you wish to undertake, and that contains favourable protection stars or personal stars (and other aspects). With these charts, it is easy to see at a glance the most unfavourable (red) and most favourable (green) times. Along with the favourable aspects, there will often be some unfavourable aspects - but don't worry: the important thing is that they are not unfavourable for the specific activity you will be involved in.

You can also use these tables in another way:

check the legend for the characteristics given for each of the stars: sometimes, there is a particular star that is very favourable for a particular activity (that you want to start). Then, look for that aspect in the 12 double-hour line of the chosen day. If there are no other unfavourable aspects at that time (specifically for the activity you want to undertake), it is a very good choice!

Note that the times shown are in TST (True Solar Time). During daylight saving time, you must add an hour to determine the correct civil time (civil time is the time you normally use and see on a normal clock).

To be even more precise, you should correct the civil time according to your location (longitude). You can do this easily on the Internet, or by using Ba Zi Calculator, which does all the calculations automatically.

For example, for the day March 10th 2024, in Turin, Italy, the correction is -39.6 minutes, which means that you need to add about 40 minutes to the time you have chosen. Suppose you have chosen the Snake hour (9-11 am); the correct civil time will then be 9:40-11:40am.

On July 10th 2024, in Turin, Italy, the correction is -34.42 minutes, plus there is daylight saving time (-60 minutes). This means that you need to add about 95 minutes to the time you have chosen. Suppose you have chosen the Snake hour (9-11 am); the correct civil time will then be 10:35-12:35am.

If the correction is positive (e.g. +23 minutes), you will have to subtract it. So, the (civil) Snake hour will be 8:37-10:37am. And so on.

SECTION III

LUNISOLAR

ASTROLOGICAL ASPECTS SHOWN IN THE CALENDAR

TS	Tai Sui This is not a dangerous day (the 'Grand Duke'). However, it should not be used, especially in Feng Shui matters. Excavation, demolition, construction, refurbishment, should be avoided - particularly in the Tai Sui direction and in the opposite one.
SP	Year Breaker Day (Sui Po, day clashing with the year) The Year Breaker (Sui Po) is clashing with the Tai Sui. Should be certainly avoided for activities lasting three months or more. It is acceptable for short-term activities, but you should still try to avoid this day. You can use this day for very specific activities involving 'breaking something' related to the current year, like digging, demolishing, breaking a relationship, etc.
MB	Month Breaker Day This day is clashing with the month pillar. If possible, always avoid these days. Nonetheless, they are good for demolition, breaking walls, excavation, digging, breaking something with no particular care. That's why, you usually don't use this day for breaking a relationship or something important: it will work but it can leave you in a mess.
K	Karmic Aspect (annual) This day is in a bad relationship with the year pillar, involving bad Karma. Although this is general, it is advisable to avoid these days. It is much worse if it also makes another karmic aspect with some element inside your birth chart. Although this is general, it is advisable to avoid these days. Note that there could be other karmic days related to your personal birth chart, that are not shown in the calendar.
K	Karmic Aspect (monthly) This day is in a bad relationship with the month pillar, involving bad Karma. Although this is general, it is advisable to avoid these days. It is much worse if it also makes another karmic aspect with some element inside your birth chart. Although this is general, it is advisable to avoid these days. A monthly karmic day is usually less dangerous than an annual karmic day, with some exceptions. Note that there could be other karmic days related to your personal birth chart, that are not shown in the calendar.

R C E	Yearly Three Killings Days (San Sha) They are carried by day earthly branch. You should always avoid these days for long-term activities. You can use these days for short term activities (a few weeks or months), if necessary. Robbery Sha Day: you can lose money, personal objects, opportunities; or being robbed (not necessary on a physical level). They are also not good for traveling, for money deposit or withdrawal. Calamity Sha Day: this is the worst kind of Sha. These days are associated with misfortune, issues, harms. They are not good for medical surgery, unless necessary. Annual (Earth) Sha Day: they bear isolation, immobility, stillness, blockages, delays, lack of development, procrastinating, wrong start.
R C E	Monthly Three Killings Days Their influence is similar to the Yearly Three Killings days. Avoid these days, especially for short term activities. You can use these days for long term activities (more than 6 months), if necessary. They are carried by day earthly branch. They are named: Robbery Sha, Calamity Sha, Monthly (Earth) Sha.
	Weak Energy Days For various reasons, these days are very weak. Try the best to avoid them.
	Dead Days This is the wrong day in the wrong season. They are usually weak and ineffective. Better avoiding it unless you know the exceptions.

	Strong Days Such a day has a strong effect, for the good or the bad. It has a strong root in the earthly branches. The influence is stronger, more effective, and quicker.
	Very Strong Days Such a day has a very strong effect, for the good or the bad. It has a strong root in the earthly branches, and it gets the combined help from the month pillar or the year pillar. The influence is much stronger, more effective, and quicker. They are rarer than the Strong Days.
	Extremely Strong Days Such a day has an extremely strong effect, for the good or the bad. It has a strong root in the earthly branches, and it gets the combined help from the month pillar and the year pillar. The influence is much stronger, more effective, and quicker. They are extremely rare too.
	Heavenly Support Days These days harmoniously get the support from other heavenly stems. Everything is flowing smoothly and fast.
	Heavenly Clash Days These days clash with other heavenly stems inside the date. There could be blockages, difficulties, delays, glitches, contrast. Avoid this day if possible.
	Heaven Blessing Star, Heavenly Virtue This is a very good star giving help and protection. Even stronger than the Moon Blessing Star.
	Moon Blessing Star, Monthly Virtue This still is a very good star giving help and protection, although weaker than the Heaven Blessing Star.
	Heavenly Happiness Star This star favours social connection and good feelings. It is good for marriage, family events, sharing.

	Year Empty Star This star is giving a mysterious effect. It can trigger the appearance of something, without that being really there, without real substance. It is called 'Void Star' as the appearance is empty inside, it is just a mirage. This star can also make something 'blow up' for a very short time. As such, it is considered mostly unfavourable, but it is not always the case. For instance, this star mixed with personal Peach Blossom and Academic Stars is good for openings, presentations, publications, and generally for all activities that need a lot of showing, fast success, and fast spreading. If mixed with the Travelling Horse Star, its effect is magnified: be careful! In 2026 yang Fire Horse year, this star is carried by the Tiger and the Rabbit.
	Yearly Traveling Horse Star This star is giving the day a 'rush and run' taste. It can help moving things forward, giving them a kick. It can also multiply the day pillar influence. If accompanied by good stars, it will enhance their effect. If accompanied by bad stars, it will make the situation worst, so be careful! If mixed with the Year Empty Star, its effect is magnified: be careful! In 2026 yang Fire Horse year, this star is carried by the Monkey.
	Yearly Storage Star This star is particularly good for incomes, earnings, gains, profits, buying and selling goods, prizes, asset acquisition, money deposit and accumulation. Its effect is long lasting.
	Monthly Storage Star This star is particularly good for incomes, earnings, gains, profits, buying and selling goods, prizes, asset acquisition, money deposit and accumulation. Its effect is short lasting. It is considered weaker than the Yearly Storage Star.

	Prosperity Star This star brings multiplication, replication, enhancement. It magnifies everything and brings things to full development. Therefore, it is indirectly connected to earnings and wealth. It can be used when you want to multiply your clients, incomes, sales, etc.
	No Wealth / Big Disaster Days Try to avoid these days, especially for activities concerning money or value: buying, selling, trading, rewards, important agreements, acquiring assets or goods.
	Favourable days To speed up the use of the Guide, especially for less important activities, favourable days are labelled with a green background. These days are favourable for most yang activities, i.e. “active” activities in which something is produced or done with the aim of growing, improving, increasing or strengthening. This assessment does not take into account the Day Officer, except for CLASH. Therefore, you will need to check that the Day Officer is suitable for the activity you wish to undertake. Only the best days are indicated in green; however, there may be other days that are very good for specific activities (left blank). Remember that some of these days may still be unfavourable for you, depending on the activity you want to undertake, your personal clash day and, for experts, your birth chart.
	Unfavourable days Unfavourable days are labelled with a red background. These days are unfavourable for most yang activities, i.e. “active” activities in which something is produced or done with the aim of growing, improving, increasing or strengthening. However, they may be suitable for some yin activities. This assessment does not take into account the Day Officer, except for CLASH. Furthermore, some of these days may still be quite favourable for you, depending on your birth chart or the result you want to achieve.

Remember that daylight saving time is not applied to the times shown on the calendar. To find the civil time (i.e., the time you usually look at on your watch), you will need to make a correction, which consists of adding one hour during the summer period.
